Dear Reader:

The threat to America's traditional liberties remains grave. And, so long as it does, you will find we take that threat very seriously indeed. Gary Allen begins this issue of American Opinion with a powerful exposé of the Establishment forces financing revolution in our colleges and on our streets. Frank Capell reports on President Nixon's appointment of key Ambassadors from among our nation's most serious security risks. George S. Schuyler discusses the failure of morality in what he calls The Age of American Cowardice. And, for page after page in this magazine, you will find hard proofs and detailed analyses of the Conspiracy which continues to smash at America and everything for which she stands.

But do not misunderstand us. Grave as the situation in which we find ourselves, we expect victory. We are winning. Even now our country is awakening to the pulse and power, the tradition and continuity, that run as a torrent of patriotism through her middle class. It is this New Americanism which is the current of tomorrow!

Conditioned to decades of defeat, we Conservatives had so forgotten the mood of victory that we began to think of ourselves as Cyrano de Bergerac, answering the Fates: "What's that you say? Hopeless? Why, very well! - But a man does not fight merely to win! No - no - better to know one fights in vain!" That is noble. It is even beautiful. But for the American Right it became a pose and a posture, a grandiloquent stamping about on the public stage in the frayed costume of yesterday's cavalier.

Professor E. Merrill Root last month recalled us to reality with his splendid narrative poem, "American Hard Hats." This month he again commands special attention with an essay he has called "We Are Winning." The man is right! The light at the horizon which we thought to be the burning of America's colleges and cities, the beginning of the end, has proved to be the dawn of our victory. It is a dawn to which all America is angrily awakening.

Sincerely,

Scott Stanley Jr.

WHO IS PAYING

For The Student Revolutionary Movement

Gary Allen, a graduate of Stanford University and one of the nation's top authorities on civil turmoil and the New Left, is author of Communist Revolution In The Streets - a highly praised and definitive volume on revolutionary tactics and strategies, published by Western Islands. Mr. Allen, a former instructor of both history and English, is active in anti-Communist and other humanitarian causes. Now a film writer, author, and journalist, he is a Contributing Editor to AMERICAN OPINION. Gary Allen is also nationally celebrated as a lecturer.

■ THE student revolutionary movement has now escalated to a level of warfare that America can no longer afford to ignore. Following the accidental explosion which atomized three would-be saboteurs and leveled a townhouse in Greenwich Village being used as an underground bomb factory, and after the deliberate dynamiting of the Math Research Center at the University of Wisconsin, even the Establishment "slicks" could no longer look the other way. Time may be a Weekly Reader for adults committed to being ill-informed, but it at last reported the truth: "In a 15-month period ending last April, there were 4,330 bombings across the U.S. They killed at least 40 persons and injured 384."

What has happened is that the New Left has been divided into two elements: (1) the "respectable" groups which continue to recruit on campus, working for university "reform" and demonstrating (both violently and non-violently) for the Vietcong; and (2) the guerrillas who have gone underground to carry out sabotage, warfare against the police, bank robberies, and kidnappings. As you know, we have for several years predicted precisely these developments.

One of the best sources of information on the sort of people who join such New Left operations - and on the part played in them by the Communist Party - is twenty-two-year-old Jerry Kirk. Five years ago, while a student at the University of Chicago, Kirk began joining radical organizations to provide information for the Federal Bureau of Investigation. During his career as an undercover operative, Jerry Kirk joined and became nationally active in S.D.S., the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs, and the Communist Party, U.S.A. After years of undercover activity he was recently surfaced and brought to Washington to testify as an expert witness before the Subversive Activities Control Board, the House Internal Security Committee, and the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.

Young Kirk revealed that shortly after he was recruited as a student into the Communist Party he was sent to a training camp in upstate New York known as Camp Unity. There, in the company of one hundred other young Organizers for the Communist Party, Jerry Kirk was put through an intensive training program under the direction of Communist professors Bettina Aptheker, Danny Rubin, Gil Green, Carl Winter, and Franklin Alexander.* Kirk was directed to keep his Com-

*Alexander, who has brothers and sisters in the Black Panther Party, was in the same cell in Los Angeles as Angela Davis, now on the F.B.I.'s list of ten most wanted fugitives as a result of her participation in the kidnap-murder of Judge Harold J. Haley in San Rafael, California.
