The Cover: A Virginia-made copy of the Browning Baby .25 ACP semi-automatic, manufactured for U.S. sales by K.B.I., Inc., of Harrisburg, Pa., and overseas distribution by Fabrique Nationale, makes its appearance. The manufacturer of this tiny Browning design that prompted thousands of clones is Precision Small Parts, Inc., of Charlottesville, Va. For a review, see the "Dope Bag" on p. 52. Cover design by Doug Barnes; photo by John R. Lamson. Note: the August 1990 cover box neglected to thank Randy Reynolds, manager of Atlantic Guns, Inc., in Silver Spring, Md., for providing the Federal .416 Rigby ammunition that appeared on the cover.
