34. No this isn't a bust; it's part of the cooperation that's developed between the L.A.P.D. and the Brotherhood of Street Racers—symbolized here by Sergeant Bill Smith Jr. and Big Willie. What they're consulting is not the quickest route to Disneyland, but the plans for what could be the greatest thing for street racers since wide tires: Brotherhood Raceway Park.

42. Pictured here is a happy group of Petersen Publishing Co. employees engaged in a typical lunchhour pursuit: a quick jaunt to the beach for a relaxing 14 minutes of sun, surf and indiscriminate pleasure. Little do they know that the radiator in their choice 1958 Impala is about to get them docked an entire afternoon's pay.

84. The dangers one faces photographing a drag race pale beside the hazards involved in getting to the drag race. When Competition Editor Jon Asher was dispatched to Gainesville, Fla., to cover the Gatornationals drag races, we asked him to absorb a little local color. Know anyone in the market for an alligator-skin camera case?
