

After the excitement of the Crusade, the family heads for the Rocky Mountains to talk over its decision quietly are shooting at him. And here you are in a theater, watching a parcel of actors. You squirm in your seat and rub your eyes. The man is still Miss W. Or perhaps it is the young minister who says: Christ promised us nothing but himself! Christianity is a spiritual relationship between you and Jesus Christ — the greatest, most gut-real adventure going.

Or perhaps it is that haunting, wandering tune, sung by Harvey with a guitar, with modern lilt and plantation overtones:

You'll never know life till you really know him....

It's hard to describe what is taking place in your mind, it happens so fast. It's like getting up on water skis for the first time, or breaking the sound barrier, or reading Wordsworth's Intimations of Immortality above Tintern Abbey. Better, it's like spending an hour in the first chapter of First John. There is an insight into life, a revealing of who God is and how he communicates to men in Jesus Christ, and a clue for the ordinary sinful person who wants up and out. Even that letter from Vietnam quietly fits into place.

How to explain it? You don't explain it. At this point For Pete's Sake ceases to be just a movie and becomes a vehicle of truth.

Well, that's enough. Let's say no more about it. Come and see for yourself, and bring every youngster in your block. This you cannot miss. S.E.W.

EVANGELISM OR REVOLUTION

Our century of crisis now faces a final choice between world evangelism and world revolution. A decisive verdict on civilization in our times, and possibly an end-time judgment, hangs over the whole human race. Outwardly life goes on, while an enlightened generation, armed with the most devastating weapons of mass destruction known to human history, stockpiles missiles against the day when the whole earth may tremble like a devastated Hiroshima. The continued on page 14
