

TODAY'S TREND IS TO TRANSLUCENT GLASS

Today's trend is to more widespread use of translucent, light diffusing glass. The unique ability of figured glass to flood areas with flattering "borrowed light" coupled with its innate beauty and interest, recommend its use in interiors traditional or contemporary.

Best of all, you can suit any mood . . . add exciting beauty . . . enliven and brighten rooms throughout the house . . . make each radiant with interest—all at a cost far less than you might expect.

And decorative glass is as practical as it is beautiful. It never requires repainting or refinishing . . . wipes shining clean with a damp cloth . . . always looks new.

When you build or modernize specify Mississippi Glass. Available in a wide variety of patterns and surface finishes wherever quality glass is sold. Let your children help you plan an Easter bunny party

It is always fun to liven up Easter holidays by having a party for the children. With visions of the Easter bunny occupying their every thought, and with colored eggs around to give the house a "party air", it's an ideal time for small-fry celebrations. The Dennison Manufacturing Company has designed these Easter party decorations for H&G readers. They're aimed at little folk, but moppets and mothers alike will have fun assembling them. They range from individual party favors to hats and centerpieces, and they cost only a few cents to make. At the top of the page, a green and yellow cart (for candy or nuts) is drawn by a handsome little duck. Dennison crepe paper, lightweight cardboard, soufflé cups, duck cutouts and ribbon are the only materials needed. At the right is a sugar 'n spice ribbon and lace basket to fill with jelly beans or colored eggs. It's made of crepe paper, a round paper container, 10" lace paper doily, and ribbon bows and flowers to trim. Of course you'll need place cards, too. The one below has a little bunny (sitting on a lace paper doily), who peeps around the card that tells someone where to sit. In addition to the doily, you'll need duplex crepe paper, a small bunny cutout, and a candy sour ball. The colors used are light green, moss green, light pink and a bright, brilliant pink. Appealing to all children are marshmallow favors,
