

STORY OF THE WEEK

The compassion of Americans brings a new life for Flavio: a brave boy, symbol of impoverished millions, is rescued from Rio slum

24

NEWSFRONTS

Death chain on a ship; Berlin crisis gets personal; the fuss over Uncle Sam; high-altitude test for legal eagles; Pope John speaks; and Russia's eye-popping planes

36

EDITORIALS

Pair of great dissenters
Candy stores and pubs

42

THE PHOTOGRAPHIC ESSAY

LIFE rides the Trans-Siberian Railroad: first U.S. journalists in 15 years make journey on world's longest line. Photographs by John Launois

47

ARTICLE OF THE WEEK

Warm hearts in a bleak land: as the Soviet builds tension, Americans on the Trans-Siberian ride meet grass-roots Russians. By Donald Connery

48

THE COLOR SPECTACLE

The splendid art of Gustave Moreau: a pioneer modern, whose work lay forgotten for a half century, is rediscovered

68

BETTER LIVING

A section on how to defeat heat: chilly soups to serve in gala summer bowls; two fads that freshen up teen-agers; and the House of the Month, a Florida pavilion home without halls

82

DEPARTMENTS

Movies: the hawklike eyes of the man who discovered Lombard, Hayworth and Bacall have blinked: and now it's Michele

80

LIFE GUIDE to amusement parks, art, books, records, TV
Letters to the Editors

7

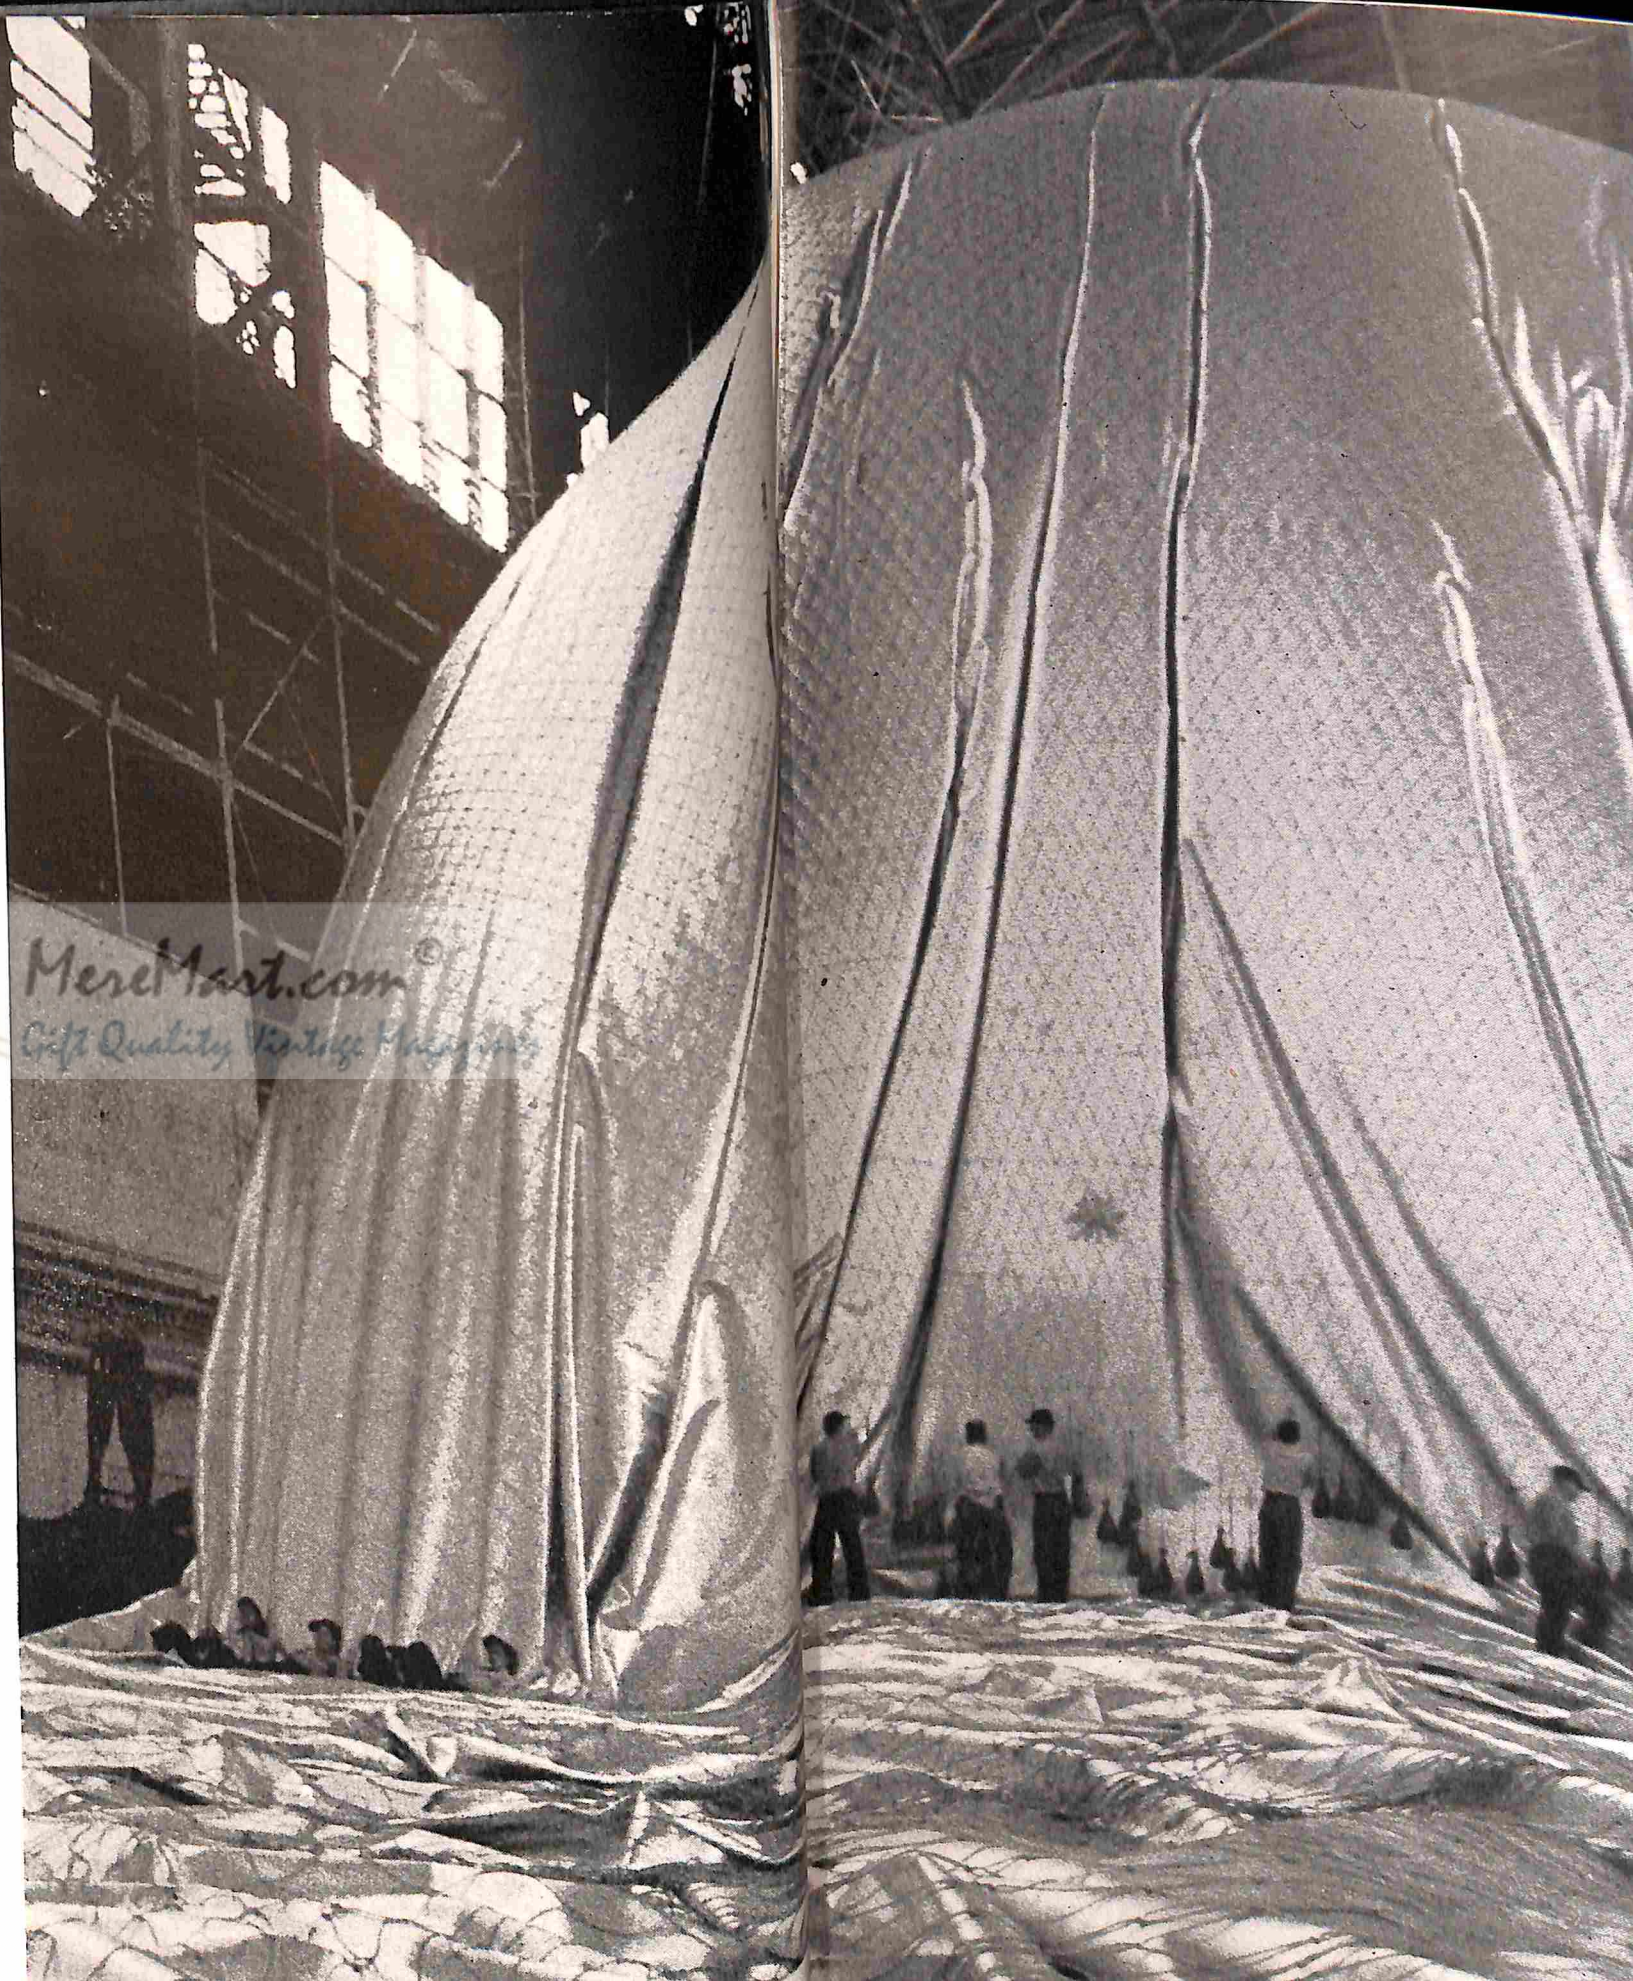

Special Report: "You have a million-dollar face." By Eleanor Graves

12

Miscellany: bit of unbridled confusion

17

38

Life

FLAVIO'S RESCUE: Americans bring him from Rio slum to be cured

OCT 61 MBE 00000002 2 38
EVERETT L NOBERG
TAYLORS FILS M INN