LIFE'S COVER

The gentleman on LIFE's cover this week has little reason to wear a smile. As Britain's new Tory foreign secretary, Anthony Eden may eventually succeed Winston Churchill as prime minister—but first he must solve some of the most woeful problems ever to confront the onetime empire. A statesman for 20 years, Eden seems undismayed by the present crisis. LIFE Correspondent Gene Farmer reports (pp. 49-57) that in his first week in office, Eden was the very picture of a proper, not to say a resourceful and energetic, diplomat. If he could redeem his predecessors' many mistakes, one of England's darkest hours might become Eden's finest.

The following list, page by page, shows the source from which each picture in this issue was gathered. Where a single page is indebted to several sources, credit is recorded picture by picture (left to right, top to bottom) and line by line (lines separated by dashes) unless otherwise specified.
