LIFE'S PICTURES

Carl Mydans (left) photographed the executions at Grenoble (pp. 69-72) and the extraordinary Gertrude Stein at her home in Culoz (pp. 83-84). Mydans has been covering the war in the Mediterranean since last May. He expects to return home soon to rejoin his wife Shelley, who has just completed a novel, The Open City, based on experiences in the Philippines and China where the Mydanses were interned by the Japanese for almost two years.

The following list, page by page, shows the source from which each picture in this issue was gathered. Where a single page is indebted to several sources, credit is recorded picture by picture (left to right, top to bottom) and line by line (lines separated by dashes) unless otherwise specified.

COVER—GEORGE SILK

BEAUTY IS A PRECIOUS BRACELET...

And like the finest jewel,
it has a thousand facets.
Flicker of gaiety in your eyes
... gleam of warmth on your lips ... glow of color in your complexion ...
all these equal beauty.
And lifting them to brilliance,
"Bond Street" by Yardley
... the world-honored
perfume and its associates—
in-glamour ... ready to kindle new loveliness for you.
