

01 PS 97

A TIMES MIRROR MAGAZINE

68

For your eyes only: Espionage at the copier.

WHAT'S NEW

12 A car that expands and shrinks, a 007 dossier, the hotel-of-tomorrow, and much more.

DEPARTMENTS

6 Letters

8 125 Years of POPULAR SCIENCE
Who are the greatest inventors of our time?

Newsfronts:

- 25 Science & Technology
- 28 Electronics
- 31 Home Technology
- 33 Automotive
- 40 Computers & Software
- 42 Beyond Here
- 75 PS Feedback
- 76 FYI
- 96 Looking Back

COVER STORY

44 Assault on the Red Planet

Three spacecraft are now streaking toward Mars as part of a decade-long invasion.

Cover art by Michael Carroll

44

Camera-packing Mars orbiter.

12 What's New: 3-D gaming at warp speed and beyond.

Founded in 1872 Volume 250 Number 1

FEATURES

50 Flying on Water A dual-engine wave-skimming hybrid that's neither fish nor fowl may be coming soon to a marina near you.

56 Snoops Welcome to a small town called the Internet, where everybody knows your business.

64 Nobody's Perfect The latest products are being designed for people who are far from average.

68 Spies in the Xerox Machine The most effective Cold War secret agent may have been a photocopier in the Soviet embassy.

71 Essential Technology Guide to Health How to stay abreast of the latest in medical wisdom? Check our compendium of cures, sources, and tips.

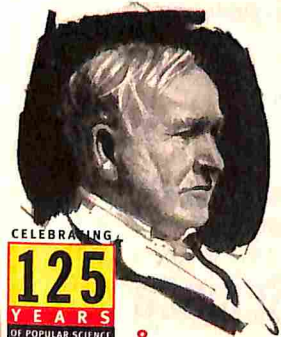

71

Technology Guide: Nonaddictive pills slash food cravings.

50

Water skimmer: It's a plane. No, it's a boat.

CELEBRATING 125 YEARS OF POPULAR SCIENCE

8

Commencing a monthly retrospective.

THE WHAT'S NEW MAGAZINE

Popular Science

JANUARY 1997 $2.95
CANADA $3.50

Searching for Life on MARS

Internet Spying: What THEY Know About YOU

12 NEW Probes That Will Change What We Know

The Boat You Can Fly

Pills That Make You THIN

CELEBRATING
125
YEARS
OF POPULAR SCIENCE

This Month: Who Are the Great Inventors of Our Time?

A TIMES MIRROR MAGAZINE
www.popsci.com

