VOLUME 46, NUMBER 12

Like an enthusiast's version of "The Sorcerer's Apprentice," we read the incantation to create a roadster renaissance, and the world's carmakers are delivering a delicious saturation of breezy convertibles. Mitsubishi has even revived the retractable hardtop—our Road Test of the 3000GT Spyder VR-4 begins on page 68. Also in this issue: our Road Test of Acura's sophisticated 2.5TL sedan and a Salon of an Indianapolis 500 winner from 80 years ago.

COVER STORY: ROADSTERS REVISITED

- 68 Mitsubishi 3000GT Spyder VR-4—Little Miss Muffet, your car is ready
- 78 Alfa Romeo GTV & Spider—front-drive, Twin Spark twin sparks from Alfa
- 81 Fiat Barchetta—a top-down tease from Fiat that's sure to fire U.S. longings
- 82 Renault Spider—Paul Frère casts his vote for the sports car of tomorrow
- 84 MGF—fresh air from Abingdon: how the latest MG roadster got its good looks
- 86 Caterham 21—a worthy stablemate to Caterham's venerable Super 7
- 89 TVR Chimaera—a V-8 British roadster with performance and styling bite
- 90 Ginetta G33—from their cottage in Sheffield, England, to yours in the States

ROAD TESTS

- 99 1996 Acura 2.5TL—hot coffee or warm milk? Acura's replacement for its lightly lamented Vigor tries to fill the U.S. order in the near-luxury segment
- 110 Volkswagen Cabrio—the "Chick's Car" comes of age: What can you say about a car that seems to be carrying its own Beach Boys soundtrack?

FIRST DRIVES

- 57 BMW M3 Lightweight—this minimalist M3 comes stripped down and ready to heel-and-toe the line at a racetrack (or street brawl) near you
- 61 1996 Buick Riviera—this 240-bhp supercharged-V-6 alternative to the V-8 Mark VIII meets its rival from Lincoln for thousands of dollars less
- 65 Audi A4—the next step up the evolutionary ladder turns the Audi 80 into the A4, a small sedan with a technical pedigree and an AAA rating

FEATURES

- 106 Long-Term Tests: Mazda Millenia S & Nissan Maxima SE—turning 30 in style: Two cars in our long-term fleet rack past the 30,000-mile mark
- 118 Salon: 1914 Mercedes Grand Prix Rennwagen—speeds are up (89 versus 230 mph), but the magic of being an Indy winner has not lessened
- 140 Long-Term Wrapup: Saab 900SE—our year in the 900 was punctuated by extended stays in California and Wisconsin, plus a few trips to the dealer

TECHNICAL

- 134 Technology Update: On the Beam—Detroit Editor Ken Zino looks farther up the road to a future illuminated by gas-discharge headlights

COMPETITION

- 126 A Dramatic Debut—Rob Walker recalls his baptism as a team owner into the waters of Championship F1 racing: the 1957 Grand Prix of Monaco

COLUMNS

- 19 Miscellaneous Ramblings—Steve Millen is ailing, but he's getting better; John Lamm won the 1994 Ken Purdy Award, and he's getting better too
- 34 Side Glances—sports cars, skiing and jazz: Were these the three sides of a symbolic triangle of post-grad cool in the Sixties, or a recipe for pure joy?
- 44 Ampersand—future Ford Probes, a possible Riley renaissance, the stars of the Seoul auto show, and Sylvester Stallone's "Judge Dredd" Land Rover
- 142 About the Sport—Indy 500, 1995: And it is written: Thou shalt not pass the pace car. Also, GP race news from San Marino and Spain
