

If you want everything to go down the drain, buy a KitchenAid disposer.

It grinds all garbage. Bones? It sharpens its blades on steak bones. And chicken bones never give it indigestion. Feed it corn cobs and husks, too. It works quietly because it's specially insulated. Tough? Its grinding elements are cast stainless steel.

Food can't cling to the sides, and spoil. So garbage odors go down the drain with the garbage. It rarely gets into a jam. If it does, you can clear it electrically. No wrench is needed.

A KitchenAid disposer, like a KitchenAid dishwasher, is built to last. So see your KitchenAid dealer. (He's in the Yellow Pages.) Or send us this coupon.
