ON THE COVER: Sometimes even the strong need a little help to survive. Each of our cover cars was little more than a basketcase a few years ago, until being extensively rehabilitated by its current owners. Today, Bob Kyle's awesome '70 Hemi 'Cuda and the immaculate '69 Shelby GT350 owned by Emmett Barr have something in common: they are both concours-quality examples of high-horsepower factory performance. PPC's Mike Gaspar captured the dynamic duo on film during the Supercar Showdown at Quaker City Dragway.
