6 "Something I Can Do"

by David Allen

He didn't know how he should serve the Lord Jesus, until a Christian tract on his windshield caught his attention.

8 A Father's Blessing

by Morgan Cryar

He didn't realize it at the time, but it would be no ordinary morning. It would be the morning when he found that Dad approved.

14 MY GREATEST STRUGGLE: Forgiveness—

A Decision, Not a Feeling

by Mary Denman

After 16 years of marriage she learned that her husband had been unfaithful. She knew that she had to forgive him, but how could she make that choice?

16 BUILDING BETTER RELATIONSHIPS: Serving the One You Love

by Gary D. Chapman

The element that lifts marriage to its highest potential is the attitude and the practice of service.

31 BIBLE STUDY: Crisis Situation, Shrewd Action

by Dennis J. Ireland

Faithful stewardship is an important and essential part of Christian discipleship, then and now.

Making Tough Decisions

by Joel Jennings

To be slow of foot and unartful in dealing with the difficult and complex challenges of the world is not Christian leadership.

Are You Spending Your Life, or Investing It?

A Message by Billy Graham

We possess something of tremendous value, a nonrenewable resource that is moving inevitably toward total depletion. That resource is time.

For some of us, life will be long. For others, life will be surprisingly short. If you reach my age, you will wonder where the time has gone.

Some time ago at a university where I was speaking, a student asked me, "What is the greatest surprise of your life?"

I answered, "The greatest surprise in my life is the brevity of life." I never dreamed that life would be so short. It seems like just yesterday
