SAME BALL, DIFFERENT TEAM

WHEN RELIEVER Octavio Dotel suits up for the Tigers this season, he'll set an MLB record without throwing a single pitch. The 14-year veteran has played on 13 different teams—the most among all active players. Check out The Mag's iPad app for highlights from his distinguished career as a professional vagabond.

FEELING A DRAFT

ESPN.com search: Todd McShay, Mel Kiper

You might have to live for seven months of the year without any games, but the NFL never truly stops. Thanks to the draft, you can get excited about your team's prospects now, and thanks to mock drafts from Todd McShay and Mel Kiper, you can start arguing about 2012's Cam Newton.

AMERICA'S PASTIME

ESPN.com search: Buster Olney

April 4 has finally arrived. But who's starting where, and why? After all the shuffles of the off-season, turn to Buster Olney to keep everything straight, get the latest buzz from around the league and hear the news as it happens.

CLASS RANKS

ESPN.com search: ESPNU 100

March Madness is over! And with stars such as Harrison Barnes and Austin Rivers headed to the NBA, teams have lots of holes to fill. So turn to Insider's recruiting rankings to keep tabs on how squads are preparing for deep 2013 tourney runs.

TWITTER TALK

After one of the most epic Octobers in baseball history, MLB is back. And from Ozzie to Albert to Yu, this season has enough characters to be yet another drama-filled year. That's why we asked our followers: Which of 2012's storylines are you most excited to see play out?

"How will Chipper play with the distractions of retirement, what happens with Strasburg-Harper, and are the Yankees too old to compete in the East?" —@KOLEBEARREPORT

"I want to see Matt Kemp pursuing 50/50 for the Dodgers. Plus a resurgence by the Nationals and Royals." —@JAMBLINMAN

"Which will be greater: The number of wins for the aging Phillies or the number of days Howard, Utley and Rollins spend on the DL?" —@WISCAROLINA

"The Blue Jays FINALLY have a shot at the playoffs this year thanks to the added wild-card spot. And the sick new unis rock!" —@HANKTHETANK10
