REVENGE OF THE JOCKS III

32 IF I WERE IN CHARGE ...

For the third straight year, we've turned an issue over to the athletes we cover. Our new guest editor? A certain long-legged 22-year-old with a killer backhand. BY MARIA SHARAPOVA

40 "I'M NOT THE GUY I USED TO BE ... "

You've heard it a thousand times: Tony Stewart is a changed man. But the way his fellow drivers tell it, this time the change is for real. BY RYAN MCGEE

44 ME, MYSELF AND 9

... Or 12, or 17, or 34. The number doesn't really matter. What counts is that it's on a player's jersey. BY EDDIE MATZ

50 JUST TELL ME ... HOW DO I GET BACK TO THE SUPER BOWL?

Larry Fitzgerald desperately wants another trip to the big game. With advice from pros such as Hines Ward, he might just get there. BY LARRY FITZGERALD

52 BACKUP PLAN

We didn't just have athletes work for us—we outsourced them too. You're welcome, Parks and Rec!

58 YOU'VE GOT MY VOTE

A Hall of Fame without Richard Dent? An outrage, says Dwight Freeney. And he's not the only current star demanding another look for a longtime idol.

60 A PERFECT DAY IS FOUR HITS, EIGHT CUPS OF COFFEE AND THREE HOURS OF WARCRAFT

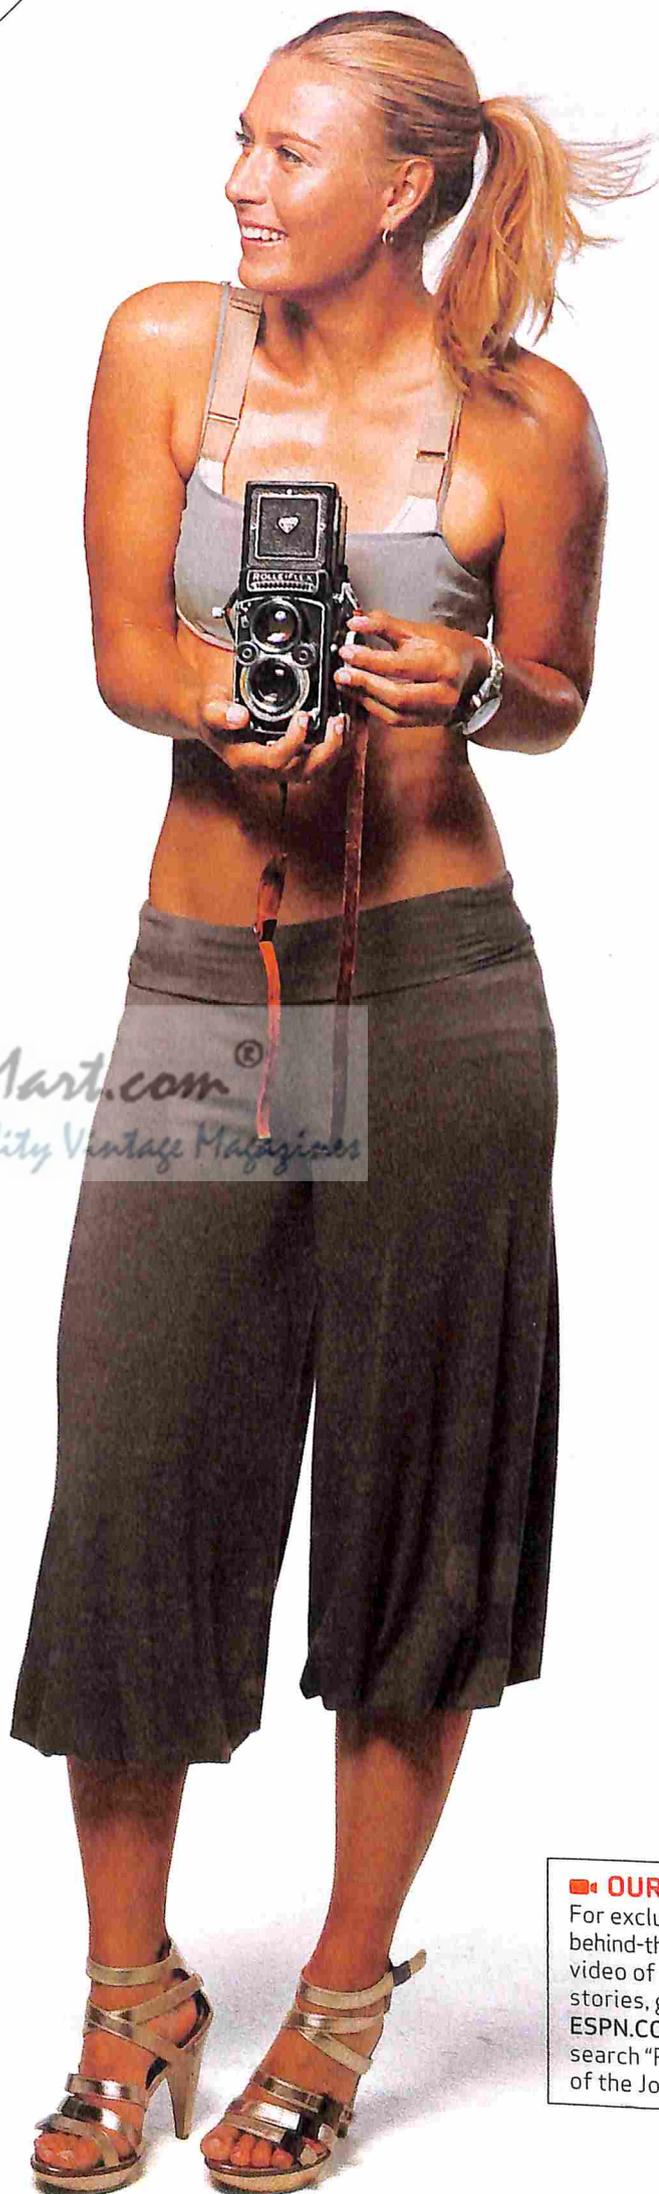

Some say the life of a big leaguer is all fun and games. And guess what? It often is! BY HUNTER PENCE

66 BESIDES THE POINT

Chair-balancing and bubble-blowing don't win titles. But a useless talent can be key to surviving the grind.

72 I'LL TELL YOU WHO I'D TAKE

It's mock drafting as you've never seen it: NBA players select their future teammates. Hey, GMs—are you listening?
