The Dodge Durango...
Approved by the American Association of Overly Active Ski Bunny People.

If you don't have the new 2014 Dodge Durango, your lady friend will leave you out in the cold. It's tough, but it's a fact. Because every woman has needs. But there isn't a one that can't be met with the Durango's standard 290-hp V6 that gets 25 MPG highway—best-in-class* for V6 engines.

Does she ski? Done. Does she want to take a jaunt with you and her gal pals? The Dodge Durango has standard seven-passenger seating. Does she enjoy driving around for hours collecting roadkill? It also has best-in-class driving range of over 600 miles* and loads of cargo space.

So get a Dodge Durango and keep your lady friend—until you grow emotionally distant and find someone new.
