LIFE'S PICTURES

A. T. Steele has traveled in the Far East since 1932 covering the wars there as a foreign correspondent. Last year he became the first American correspondent to reach Lhasa, the forbidden capital of Tibet. His very rare pictures of the 9-year-old Dalai Lama, ruler of Tibet, are shown on pages 35-38. Willing and amused to have his picture taken, the young lama smiled broadly at Mr. Steele. The Tibetan priests, believers in reincarnation, were awed for this meant to them that Mr. Steele must have known their ruler in a former life.

The following list, page by page, shows the source from which each picture in this issue was gathered. Where a single page is indebted to several sources, credit is recorded picture by picture (left to right, top to bottom) and line by line (lines separated by dashes) unless otherwise specified.

Tighten our belts? You bet!

A little less of everything on the home front—except courage and endurance! A lot more for our boys on the war fronts. That's the pledge of all real Americans. There's not near enough Big Yank Work Clothing, Universal Shirts and Pajamas, Kay Whitney and Happy Home Frocks and other Reliance products for civilians. That's because Reliance factories are so busy with parachutes, clothing and other equipment urgently needed by our Army and Navy. 1945 needs the greatest? Then 1945 will see new production records! Tighten our belts? You bet!
