There is something about this face that makes men talk. And there is a knack to asking the right questions. Oriana Fallaci was in the Middle East recently, and in Amman, Jordan, she interviewed an unusual talker. Abu Lotuf, as he is called by the members of Al Fatah, helped to start the guerrilla group ten years ago. Today, he is its brains. How can his fedayeen fight the sophisticated weapons of Israel? Where does he stand on Arab Communism? What would he do if he won? Read, Hidden Leader of the Arab Guerrillas, page 24.
