Only through this magazine can 6,000 muzzleers of America realize the great interest in m-l gun owning and shooting in the U.S.A. "Red" Farris, gazing at the vast display of trophies at the National of 1959 expressed it in the fewest of meaningful words, simply: "If nothing else had ever been done by muzzleers, this pyramid of awards for skill with the old guns tells the story of their appeal to real Americans."

—O—

Heard on every corner of the range: "It surely makes a difference after shooting in the sun in past years."

—O—

Mr. Ernest Laker, the new caretaker for Walter Cline Range paid a fine compliment to our crowd, "I wish I could thank them each personally for the help they are giving me in keeping things clean."

—O—

Goodbye, Folks. This writer's career as an Editor of your magazine has come to an end as all other things must end!
