DO YOU REALLY WANT TO TAKE A 15 HOUR FLIGHT ON A 5 HOUR AIRLINE?

Flying to the South Pacific is nothing like the typical cross-country hop most North Americans have experienced.

And the airlines that have mastered 5 hour flights are no match when it comes to the comfort, privacy and service
travelers expect on flights lasting three times that long.

There is, however, one airline that specializes in these passages. It has for 70 years.

Qantas. Hardly surprising, considering Australia is a very long way from just about anywhere.

Mastering the long flight was a matter of necessity.

In fact, in a satisfaction poll conducted by Condé Nast Traveler magazine, travelers ranked Qantas one of the three best airlines in the world.

None of the American based airlines that fly to the South Pacific made the top 20.

Flying 747s, and only 747s from North America, Qantas features one of the youngest,

In the U.S. call reservations at 1-800-227-4500. In Vancouver: 684-8231.
In British Columbia and Alberta: 1-800-663-3411. The remainder of Canada: 1-800-663-3423.
*American Airlines reserves the right to change the AAdvantage program without notice.

To the domestic based airlines that average 2-5 hour routes, the South Pacific is an unusually long and demanding flight. To Qantas, it's our usual hop.

On our new 747-400's,
every seat in every class features
a lumbar support.

most modern fleets in the sky. Which also means the newest, most comfortable seats.

Qantas also offers you the most nonstop
flights to the most locations in the South Pacific.

And you don't have to pass up frequent flyer miles, because Qantas is a member of the American Airlines AAdvantage® program.*

Next time you're traveling to the South Pacific, for business or pleasure, fly on Qantas. For more information, call your travel agent or Qantas directly.

When it comes to South Pacific service, most other airlines have a long way to go.
