THE THEATRE

PLAYS AND MUSICALS

ANOTHER ANTIGONE—A. R. Gurney, Jr.'s humorous play about a professor of Greek drama who is accused of anti-Semitism. George Grizzard gives a marvellous, eloquent performance. (Reviewed in our issue of 1/25/88.) (Playwrights Horizons, 416 W. 42nd St. 279-4200. Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8, and Sundays at 7. Matinees Saturdays and Sundays at 3.)

ANYTHING GOES—Under the clever direction of Jerry Zaks, this exuberant revival is primarily a celebration of Cole Porter himself. The libretto, as revised from the original by Timothy Crouse and John Weidman, is consistently entertaining. The company, which includes Bill McCutcheon, Howard McGillin, Patti LuPone, Anthony Heald, and Kathleen Mahony-Bennett, does more than justice to the words and score. (11/2/87) (Vivian Beaumont, Lincoln Center. 239-6200. Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8. Matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays at 2, and Sundays at 3.)

THE BOYS NEXT DOOR—A play by Tom Griffin. (Lambs, 130 W. 44th St. 997-1780. Mondays and Wednesdays through Saturdays at 8. Matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays at 2, and Sundays at 3.)

BREAKING THE CODE—Derek Jacobi gives an accomplished performance as the English mathematician Alan Turing, who helped crack the German Enigma code during the war, but Hugh Whitmore's script is more vehicle than play. Michael Gough, Rachel Gurney, and Jenny Agutter are among the good supporting actors. Clifford Williams was the director. (11/30/87) (Neil Simon, 250 W. 52nd St. 246-0102. Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8. Matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays at 2, and Sundays at 3.)

BURN THIS—Lanford Wilson's play can be considered an occasion for an astonishing performance by John Malkovich, as a foulmouthed restaurant manager who woos and wins his dead brother's dancing partner. The supporting actors—Joan Allen, Jonathan Hogan, and Lou Ligeratore—are also good. Marshall W. Mason was the director, and the distinguished setting was designed by John Lee Beatty and lighted by Dennis Parichy. (10/26/87) (Plymouth, 236 W. 45th St. 239-6200. Nightly, except Sundays, at 8. Matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays at 2.)

CABARET—This tasteful revival of the 1966 musical by John Kander and Fred Ebb (directed by Harold Prince) has a gloriously muted Joel Grey re-creating his role as the Emcee and a sterling performance by Alyson Reed, who plays Sally Bowles as she was always meant to be played. (11/2/87) (Imperial, 249 W. 45th St. 239-6200. Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8. Matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays at 2, and Sundays at 3.)

THE CHERRY ORCHARD—Chekhov's comedy, in a new English translation by Elisaveta Lavrova. Natasha Parry, Rebecca Miller, Zeljko Ivanek, Erlend Josephson, Brian Dennehy, and Linda Hunt head a cast directed by Peter Brook. (Majestic, 651 Fulton St., about a block east of Flatbush Ave., Brooklyn. 1-718 636-4100. Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8, and Sundays at 7. Matinees Saturdays at 3 and Sundays at 2.)

COLD SWEAT—A play by Neal Bell. (Playwrights Horizons, 416 W. 42nd St. 279-4200. Wednesdays through Saturdays, and Tuesday, Feb. 2, at 8, and Sundays at 7. Closes Sunday, Feb. 7.)

EQUITY LIBRARY THEATRE—A revival of the 1977 musical revue SIDE BY SIDE BY SONDHEIM is the fourth in this season's series of eight productions. (Equity Library Theatre, 103rd St. and Riverside Dr. Nightly, except Monday, at 8. Matinees Saturday and Sunday at 2:30. Closes Sunday, Jan. 31. For information about tickets, for which contributions are requested, call 663-2028.)

FRANKIE AND JOHNNY IN THE CLAIR DE LUNE—Terrence McNally's enchanting comedy about sex and the sudden onset of love in an apartment on Tenth Avenue in the Fifties. Kathy Bates and Kenneth Welsh give remarkable performances, under the direction of Paul Benedict. (11/9/87) (Westside Arts, 407 W. 43rd St. 541-8394. Tuesdays through Fridays at 8, and Saturdays and Sundays at 7. Matinees Saturdays and Sundays at 3.)

INTO THE WOODS—The new musical by Stephen Sondheim and James Lapine is an attempt to show what lurks beneath the surface of conventional fairy tales. The amusing first half is like a musical staging of Bruno Bettelheim's "The Uses of Enchantment." The rather nasty second half degenerates into cheap philosophy. The costumes (by Ann Hould-Ward) and sets (by Tony Straiges) are pretty to look at, and the songs are beautiful or funny—sometimes both. The superb cast, led by Bernadette Peters and Joanna Gleason, is directed by Mr. Lapine. (11/16/87)

(Martin Beck, 302 W. 45th St. 246-6363. Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8. Matinees Wednesdays and Saturdays at 2, and Sundays at 3.)

MAN AND SUPERMAN—In this latest revival of Shaw's 1903 anti-romantic comedy, David Birney is miscast as the glib radical-intellectual Jack Tanner, and Frances Conroy is misdirected (by William Woodman) as his unwanted ward, Ann Whitefield. But the production—which does not include Act III and the brilliant dream sequence commonly known as "Don Juan in Hell"—is saved by the deftly winning performances of Michael Cumpsty, Anthony Fusco, and Kim Hunter (as Mrs. Whitefield, Ann's mother). (1/25/88) (Roundabout, 100 E. 17th St. 420-1883. Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8. Matinees Wednesdays, Saturdays, and Sundays at 2. Closes Sunday, Feb. 14.)

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM—This is as much a celebration of Shakespeare's comedy as a presentation of it, with A. J. Antoon at the helm. The real source of magic lies in the beautiful scenery of Andrew Jackness and the rich, gorgeous score by Michael Ward. (1/25/88) Reopens Tuesday, Feb. 2. (Public, 425 Lafayette St. 598-7150. Tuesdays through Saturdays at 8. Matinees Wednesdays, except Feb. 3, and Saturdays at 2, and Sundays at 3.)

OIL CITY SYMPHONY—Mike Craver, Mark Hardwick, Debra Monk, and Mary Murfitt, gifted and sophisticated singers and instrumentalists, appear as a quartet of dedicated hicks reuniting at their small-town high school in this very funny, very musical musical. Mr. Hardwick and Miss Monk, by the way, are alumni of the beguiling "Pump Boys and

WHY TRUE NEW YORKERS WON'T PAY $1,000,000 FOR A CO-OP, $1,000 FOR A SUIT, OR $10 TO PARK THEIR CAR FOR HALF AN HOUR.

Two-bedroom apartments on Fifth Avenue: $1,000,000 to $2,500,000.

This New Zealand wool suit costs $1,250 on Madison Avenue.

Current rate for 1/2 hr. parking in the Grand Central area: $10 plus tax.

There's a limit to how far you can push New Yorkers. Especially when it comes to inflated prices. They know what an East Side apartment, a cashmere sweater or a dish of pasta is worth. And when the price comes to double or triple that, they're not buying.

True New Yorkers know value. They don't mind paying for quality but they won't pay for glitz. They'll pay for tuition, travel and fine art, but there's no way in the world they're going to pay seven-digit prices for a co-op, four-digit prices for a suit or two-digit prices to park for 30 minutes.

True New Yorkers come to the restaurants at Windows on the World. Windows on the World is New York at its best. It is New York spectacular, New York gracious and the best restaurant value in the whole town. Windows on the World buys—and sells—more first quality beef, fresh fish, poultry, game, dairy products, baked goods and wine than any other restaurant in the world. So it can serve the best of everything—and charge less for it. And give you free parking in the building to boot.

Think about this. You can have an impressive three course price-fixed dinner at The Restaurant for just $29.95. And choose from a list of more than 600 wines.

You can build an entire evening around small-portion delectables, cocktails, jazz, dancing and view at The Hors d'Oeuvriere for just $20 to $25 a person.

Or you can have New York's most elegant dinner at The Cellar in the Sky—seven courses fashioned by our chef and cellar master around five remarkable wines. All for $70 which is less than you'd pay for the wines alone if you ordered them separately somewhere else.

Windows on the World is New York at its best. New York's best ambience, New York's best view and New York's best restaurant values.

Windows on the World. A great place to fall in love with New York. Again.

The Restaurant, The Hors d'Oeuvriere, The Cellar In The Sky. Gault Millau Restaurant Guide Award. The Wine Spectator Grand Award. One World Trade Center. (212) 938-1111. Free parking inside the building.
