Woman brought back to life after 36 years.

Hers was a tragic case.

Struck down in the prime of life by a 60-hour work week, triple brownie ice cream and a cellular telephone. Fortunately, we were able to save her.

OUT GOES THE BAD AIR.

First came relaxation. Our weary workaholic was immersed in warm water and gently exfoliated with mineral salts. This was followed by a steam bath, Swiss shower and a rubdown with aromatic oil. After such luxurious treatment, signs of life began to appear. Resuscitation was completed with Boxercise™, a European facial, and a dinner which included a choice of lobster, eggplant rollatini or chicken piccata.

LIFE SUPPORT, CANYON RANCH STYLE.

Permanent cures beat temporary ones. So the next morning, our heroine explored stress management, biofeedback, and a "lunch and learn" demonstration where our chefs displayed the skills needed to make healthy, appetizing meals at home.

THE DIFFERENCE A WEEK MAKES.

Thus, after a week of everything from yoga to mountain biking, she was not only vibrantly alive, but had acquired the tools to remain that way. If you're in need of a little rejuvenation, or even a full-scale resurrection, call us at 800-726-9900.
