

FEATURES

- 37 Back-to-Back Bulls
Dreams of taking a world-record bull elk came true for Jay Elmer not once but twice! By Dwight Schuh
- 43 Sturgeon Madness
Action with big sturgeon can be wild in San Francisco Bay when the herring spawn. By Larry Green
- 46 Last Try for Mr. Big
My dog was making a fool out of me, and I couldn't stand for that. He needed a lesson. By H. R. Temple
- 51 The Bear Truth
Here are the facts about black bears from a man who has studied more than 1,000 of them. By Gary L. Alt
- 54 The Bottom Line
Some of the year's best pheasant hunting takes place late in the season, and here's why. By Norman Strung
- 58 My Africa
He was nearly killed by a bull elephant during one of his boyhood safaris close to home. By Paul Quinnett
- 60 Hunt the Hard Places
To find the best waterfowling, you'll have to hunt the places where no one else will go. By Dwight Schuh
- 62 New World-Record Striper
The inside story of the 76-pound striped bass that broke the all-tackle record. By Bob Rocchetta
- 64 Easiest Ways Not to Get a Deer
You didn't get your buck! Not to worry. I'll bet I know why and that I can help. By John O. Cartier

- 70 Cut-Rate Decoys
If the price of decoys is keeping you home when fly, here's a $1 apiece answer. By Floyd Wensel
- 82 The Sand That Lets You Down
Stepping into quicksand could put you in deep trouble. How deep depends on you. By George Laycock
- 112 Rattlesnake Belt Buckles
A rattlesnake belt buckle is inexpensive, easy to use and a great conversation piece. By Chuck Post

MIDWEST SPECIALS

- 39 Year of the Trophy Buck
Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Rugged? Sure. But a trophy buck it's worth it. By Richard P. Smith
- 40 The Kansas One-Two
Kansas offers superb quail and pheasant hunting. One region is tops for both birds. By Michael Peck
- 42 Where Are All the Bluebills?
That's a good question, but one Robert L. Jessen has a few answers to. By John O. Cartier
- 47 Too Many Geese?
The continental goose population continues to grow. But some problems have cropped up. By John M. ...
- 49 Mallards on the Missouri
When old pinkfoot wings down the Missouri River, prepare for some fast shooting. By Hank Bradshaw
- 56 Around Your Region
Regional hunting and fishing news: Wisconsin's dilemma, hunter orange, and more. By John O. ...

DEPARTMENTS

- 4 Editorial Trails
Do it neatly!
- 12 Letters
Nix on Mr. Snoke!
- 14 Starnes at Large
Defending our right to hunt
- 21 What's New
Field reports of new gear

- 26 Shooting
The new scatterguns are great
- 69 Sport Vehicles
Tips for RV fuel economy
- 76 Bowhunting
Why do deer change trails?
- 78 Fishing: Jerry Gibbs
Christmas-tree rigs

- 80 Fishing: Lefty
The eye-catching lure
- 86 Boating
Answers to boating questions
- 92 This Happened
The trapped trapper
- 95 Hunting Dogs
The laying on of hands

READER INFORMATION

- 115 Shopping
- 121 Where to go

124 Classified

Cover illustration by Ken Laager

Now Dangerous Are Bear To You? Here's Facts

OUTDOOR LIFE®

STILL ONLY $1.25

NOVEMBER 1981

MIDWEST
Special Features

MISSISSIPPI: Great Year For Trophy Beer

MISSISSIPPI: Many Geese In The FLYWAY?

MINN., WIS., MICH.:
Plenty Of Bluebills

MO. & NEB., S.D.:
Top Luck Hunting Spots

MISSISSIPPI: To Strike Out
On This Year

MISSISSIPPI: Hunter Got Two Raccoons In A Row

SEND NO MONEY NOW
FOR THIS YEAR'S
BEST OF THE BEST
EX. 100 RM 1
SEASON'S RAZOR
OFFER
NO POSTAGE
NECESSARY
IF MAILED
IN THE
UNITED STATES