BIG GAME WEAR

From People With Big Experience

Out in the wild, experience counts. After 173 years experience in the forests and mountains, Remington knows what makes sense and what elements demand. Couple us with Du Pont expertise in fabric and finish technology and the result is the Remington System for Big Game Hunting.

You need comfort, protection and silence. That's why Remington's Big Game parka and pants are cut for easy, quiet movement from high-tech materials that keep you warm, dry and comfortable—without weighing you down.

And, when the game is yours, a Remington Big Game Knife with its 3 3/4" clip blade, 3 5/8" selfcleaning bone saw, paunch hook, grip notches and leather sheath is exactly the companion you need—and it even comes with its own sharpening tool.

See these and the full range of Remington Outdoor Clothing at your nearby Remington Dealer.

Big Game 4-Way Parka

- Detachable hood
- Tan or blaze orange
- 4-Ways to wear: combined parka & liner jacket, as parka alone, or your choice of reversible liner jacket applications.

- CORDURA®/SUPPLEX™ shell with quiet GORE-TEX™ Z-liner, provides durability, suppleness and weather protection.
- Reversible liner jacket, insulated with THERMOLOFT™, zips in or out and reverses to SUPPLEX fabric. Wear either jacket or parka alone in warm weather.

- Button closures throughout for quiet access.

- Sleeve gussets and deep side vents and an action back for ease of movement.

- Pockets lined with POLARPLUS® fabric to keep hands warm.

- Pleated bellows hip pockets that expand to capacity.

- Vertical map and binocular pockets.
- Inside security pocket, great for valuables.

Big Game Pants

- Matching CORDURA/SUPPLEX fabric with GORE-TEX Z-liner for maximum water and wind protection.

- Large front patch pockets.
- Double-faced leg fronts for increased durability.
- Insulated with THERMOLITE®.

Federal Migratory Waterfowl Stamp can now be purchased with hunting licenses at your participating Remington dealer.
