

APRIL 12, 1993
VOLUME 78, NO. 14

DEPARTMENTS

9

LETTERS

13

FACES IN THE CROWD

17

SCORECARD

68

SPORTS PEOPLE

78

COLLEGE HOCKEY

82

PRO BASKETBALL

102

POINT AFTER

20

THE FINAL FOUR

North Carolina executed Dean Smith's vaunted system just well enough to edge Michigan for the NCAA title

BY ALEXANDER WOLFF

32

EXPANSION '93

Old Charlie Hough led the new Florida Marlins to their first win

BY TIM KURKJIAN

A statistical guide to major league baseball's newcomers

BY STEVE HIRDT

42

RHYMES WITH HOOPS

Sheryl Swoopes was the name of the game as she led Texas Tech to the women's NCAA championship

BY KELLI ANDERSON

MereMart.com®

Vintage Magazines for Special People

A Strike for Ike

When Dwight (Doc) Eisenhower threw out the first ball in 1960—Senators vs. Red Sox—he carried on a presidential tradition, most recently observed by Bill (King of the Hill) Clinton (page 84).

Clinton (page 84).

APRIL 12, 1993 • $2.95

Sports Illustrated

Nothing Could Be Finer

NORTH CAROLINA
TOPS MICHIGAN FOR
THE NCAA TITLE

 MereMart.com®
Vintage Magazines for Special People

#BXBDHKDCARR-RT-SORTRR01
#54871MRT99001C95#6 X5 MI41RE MAY93
COREY MORTENSEN
RT 1 BOX 26 MI 54871-9733
9272
PL00092

