

WILLIAM CAMPBELL FOR TIME

Drug of Choice: Crank is very hot in the heartland (see NATION)

BETH A. KEISER—AP

Rare Air: When the going got tough, Jordan got better. Is it now the end of the line? (see COVER) iCaliente! The latest in jazz is coming out of Cuba (see THE ARTS)

SUSAN TITELMAN

AMERICAN SCENE: Yuks and terror as a stand-up comic 6

NOTEBOOK 17

MARGARET CARLSON on Ace Greenberg's Viagra giveaway 21

MILESTONES 23

NATION

DRUGS: The New Epidemic 24

Once known as speed, crank returns as a plague

CRIME: A Small Town in Texas 34

In the New South, a murder revives ghosts of the past

INVESTIGATIONS: The Relentless Crusader 36

How Larry Klayman is waging a private war on Clinton

Sugar Daddy: Richard Scaife is the right's big moneyman 37

EDUCATION: Thumbs Up on Vouchers 38

In Wisconsin, a victory for religious schools and free choice

Welfare: Is the "family cap" an incitement to abort? 38

WORLD

TAIWAN: The War Next Time? 40

In Beijing, Clinton will have to ponder the island's future

INTERVIEW: Taiwan's President Lee Teng-hui 41

NIGERIA: An Orphan's Struggle 42

In exile, Hafsat Abiola is a firebrand for African democracy

BUSINESS

FASHION: Catfight! 46

Is Prada planning a hostile takeover of its rival, Gucci?

FINANCE: Playing the Market 48

A crop of young, little-tested fund managers rides the bull

SCIENCE AND SOCIETY

ENVIRONMENT: Setting the World on Fire 50

Forests all over are aflame, and the worst may be yet to come

COVER: The One and Only 54

For Michael Jordan, to soar is second nature, to dunk is high art, to inspire is instinctive. But to retire? The world isn't quite ready to accept it and morosely awaits his decision

The Greatest? Dan Okrent positions Jordan in history 60

WITH THE BULLS: Better All the Time 62

David Halberstam's assessment of Jordan's greatness

SOCCER: Americans in Paris 64

The World Cup begins. And the U.S. team's worth watching

THE ARTS

MUSIC: ¡Qué bueno! Cuba shakes up the U.S. jazz scene 66

CINEMA: Mulan, a new kind of Disney heroine 69

Cousin Bette, a wickedly comic adaptation of a classic 69

Seeing The X-Files through a fanatic's eyes 70

THEATER: Tennessee Williams, prison reformer 72

OPERA: In Houston, Carmen rocks 73

BOOKS: An undersea treasure hunt turns up a great tale 74

At the front with civil rights warrior John Lewis 76

Eric Liu contemplates growing up Asian American 76

PERSONAL TIME

YOUR MONEY: Daniel Kadlec on a volunteer's nightmare 79

Portfolio: Cement stocks get rolling; car insurance slows down

YOUR HEALTH: Christine Gorman on deadly drug duos 80

Good News, Bad News: AIDS; athletes; hypertension; garlic

YOUR TECHNOLOGY: Joshua Quittner does Windows 98 82

Bytes: Discovering DisneyQuest; get ready for electronic books

PEOPLE: Patty Hearst's package; the Stones and taxes 85

ESSAY: Lance Morrow on dinner-party banter 86

COVER: Photograph by Walter Iooss Jr.—Stockland Martel,

courtesy of WorldCom

TIME

MeriMart.com
Gift Quality Vintage Magazines

MICHAEL

We may never see his likes again

#BXNDJLCARR-RT-SORTC040
#93720ULLG1G25F93#3 T5 CR24R SEP98
FLORENCE I WILLIS 0000
7625 N 1ST ST 177 #02999
FRESNO P00160
CR 93720-0959