

JOHN MC CONNICO—AP

The Bomb: India's joy sends shudders through the world (see ASIA'S CRISIS)

SUSAN STERNER—AP

From Here to Eternity: America mourns Sinatra, with his songs in our hearts (see COVER)

STACY ROSENSTOCK—IMPACT VISUALS

Surfing, U.S.A.? Gore's school plans run into trouble (see NATION)

AMERICAN SCENE: Mixed blessings for a night-guard hero.....	4
NOTEBOOK	21
WASHINGTON DIARY: Margaret Carlson on the religious right.....	28
TECHWATCH: Space shots; electric bikes; the Web or a WC?.....	32
MILESTONES	33

ASIA'S CRISIS

INDIA: Thunder Out of the Subcontinent	34
With five underground tests, New Delhi proudly proclaims itself a rogue member of the exclusive nuclear club. But now that it's been heard, its enemies are preparing their replies
Intelligence: Why the CIA didn't have a clue.....	40

HINDU NATIONALISTS: Bid the Mahatma Goodbye	42
Forget pacificism. Paranoia is policy for India's ruling party

INDONESIA: End Games, Bloody End Games	44
Jakarta descends into chaos, a prelude to Suharto's inevitable departure, with ominous echoes beyond his country's borders

FINANCE: Beware of the Fallout	46
How the fires engulfing Indonesia could scorch U.S. banks

NATION

THE VICE PRESIDENT: Misadventure in Cyberspace	52
Wiring every classroom and library sounded like a good idea, until someone called it the Gore Tax
Yes, It's Still a Good Idea: Al Gore defends his plan.....	54
No, It's Not: David Gelernter says learn first, surf later.....	55
THE G.O.P.: Young, Black and Republican	56
Dylan Glenn runs for Congress—and for history—in Georgia

SCIENCE AND SOCIETY

TECHNOLOGY: BREAKDOWN!	58
The Microsoft talks fail, and the feds ready their antitrust suit
Interview: Bill Gates tells his side of the controversy to TIME managing editor Walter Isaacson.....	58

PRESS: Lies, Damn Lies and Journalism	62
At the New Republic , the collapse of the career of a young star
FREEMASONS: To Save the Brotherhood	64
The dwindling secret society hopes for a youth movement
RELIGION: Sympathy for the Rebel?	65
A liberal archbishop heads for a final audience with the Pope

THE ARTS

COVER: Frank Sinatra: 1915-1998	66
He was the tough-guy romantic instinctively locking into the wit and heartbreak of a lyric; the career chameleon lending unselfconscious flair to the high life as well as to lowlifes; the perfectionist always ready to go for broke. He lived a life that was full and traveled each and every byway. And his way became the quintessential 20th century American way

THE STYLE: "I Am a Thing of Beauty"	72
Sinatra's definition of hip was eclipsed by hippies and grunge, disco and heavy metal. But it's survived them all. Cool, baby
Legacy: Christopher John Farley on Sinatra's musical influence.....	72

CINEMA: It still sounds the same, but the creature that rampages through Godzilla is a whole new animal.....	74
--	----

BOOKS: A journalist hangs out with the lost youth of America.....	80
Damascus Gate , Robert Stone's transcendent new thriller.....	82
William Bundy assesses the Nixon-era foreign policy.....	82

MUSIC: The electro-rock band Garbage is better than its name.....	84
Singer Natalie Merchant shows just how smart she really is.....	84

SPECTATOR: Bruce Handy at the new, retro Tomorrowland.....	87
---	----

PEOPLE: Mira Sorvino gets mad; riding Scream Machine	89
--	----

ESSAY: Charles Krauthammer on India's nuclear tests.....	90
---	----

COVER: Everett Collection; INSET: Digitally enhanced nuclear-test explosion from Photo Researchers

INDIA'S NUKES

Just
when you thought
the world
was safe...

TIME

FRANCIS ALBERT
SINATRA
1915-1998

MerchMart.com®
Gift Quality Vintage Magazines

#BXBDJLCARR-RT-SORTC040
#93720WLL01625F93#9 T5 C024R5 SEP98
FLORENCE I WILLIS 0034
7625 N 1ST ST 177 #02604
FRESNO CA 93720-0959 P00217