

Contents continued from Page 2

MONEY & BUSINESSPersonal Investing Guide: Is the Market Due for a Fall? 50

The Dow Jones average is within reach of an all-time record. And you know what that means: It could be bubble-bursting time

High-Priced Energy 54

Fund manager David Kiefer talks about the winners in the natural-resources arena

Stellar Returns 56

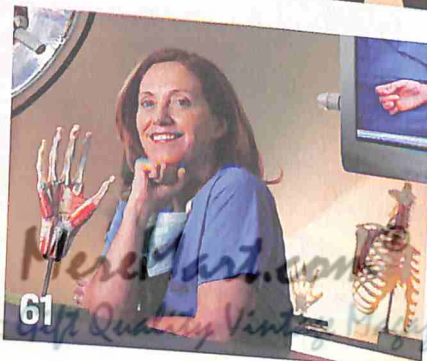

The first quarter proved rewarding for most stock fund investors

HEALTH & MEDICINEMedicare Part D: Decide Now! 58

No, we don't blame you for putting off trying to figure out Medicare's plan. But yes, you do have to take action, and soon

Going Out on a Limb 61

Nerve surgeon Susan Mackinnon specializes in saving arms and legs

Bernadine Healy, M.D.: It's Common Sense for Women to Take Calcium 71Mortimer B. Zuckerman: The Real-Estate Boom Could Spell Trouble 72*NOW @ USNEWS.COM*Ethanol Explained

Most people know the fuel comes from crops and has been around awhile. But what are the pros and cons? And will my car run on ethanol?

www.usnews.com/ethanol

What's Not Up, Doc?

OK, guys don't like to talk about their, um, you know. But erectile dysfunction affects some 15 million men. Learn more in our Sexual & Reproductive Health Center.

www.usnews.com/ed

College Crash

Hey, high school seniors: If you're not happy with your college options, our Getting In column has a list of schools where you can still apply for fall semester.

www.usnews.com/kingsbury

Immigration Debate

Our interactive section features the latest stories and photos as well as reader feedback.

www.usnews.com/immigration

Retiring Minds...

...want to know where to spend the golden years. We've got advice.

www.usnews.com/retire

Mad About Uganda

Invisible Children: Rough Cut, a heartbreaking documentary about Ugandan kids who "night commute"—sleep in public places so they won't be abducted by rebels—has mobilized an army of American college students. We spoke with film director Jason Russell.

www.usnews.com/uganda

Tomcat Cruiser

An unborring Toyota? How can that be? Richard J. Newman sizes up the brash FJ Cruiser.

www.usnews.com/auto

ALWAYS ONLINE

America's Best Leaders. Profiles range from Condoleezza Rice to purposeful Rick Warren.

www.usnews.com/leaders

Barone Blog. The movie United 93 and Pamela Anderson's op-ed on animals are among the topics that get Michael Barone going.

www.usnews.com/baroneblog

Washington Whispers Poll.

Tony Snow, you need help in the White House! Which newsperson should he tag: printmeisters Fred Barnes, Bill Sammon, or Tony Blankley, or radio's Laura Ingraham?

www.usnews.com/wwpoll

U.S. News & World Report

U.S. News

MAY 8, 2006

THE SPY NEXT DOOR

Police departments across America are keeping tabs on ordinary citizens. Are you one of them?

MN 56482-1423