

WELL, Mrs. Arthur C. Trautwein did, and a mighty cute sight it was!

Because in that sheet was the liveliest youngster in Buffalo, New York.

Here's the story:

Many years ago, Mrs. Trautwein's mother gave her six Pequot sheets, embroidered with her initials, to use in her own room. When she married, she took the Pequots to her new home. Together with six more, received later as a wedding gift, these sheets have been in continuous use all these years.

And such use! Writes Mrs. Trautwein:

"We had no washing machine at first. Those Pequots were scrubbed on a washboard, and boiled on our wood stove."

Eventually those first Pequots wore thinnish in the center. But they were still too good to discard, so here's what clever Mrs. Trautwein did:

"I whipped up a few dainty aprons for myself...and some creeper suits for my friend's baby. He sure looks cute in them!... My wedding Pequots, now seven years old, are still like new. Yes, I'm very pleased with my Pequots!"

If you can't get Pequots when you really need them, it is because the needs of the Government have been so great. But we are doing our best to supply some for retail stores, too. So keep asking for Pequots! Pequot Mills, Salem, Massachusetts.
