

Home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McAllister
Staunton, Virginia

Home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Swanson
Lawrenceburg, Indiana

Garden of Mrs. V. A. Acer
Medina, New York

MRS. JEAN AUSTIN, Editor

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Dorsey
Dallas, Texas

Home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Maher
Schenectady, New York

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nelson Combs
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Garden of Mr. Herbert R. Kahrs
Augusta, Georgia

LEONARD BARRON, Horticultural Editor

CONTENTS

National Edition
MARCH, 1935 VOL. XIII, No. 4

Cover Design by Harry Marinsky*
On the Hearth of The American Home	212
Connecticut Welcome	220
Two Viewpoints on the Home Question Josephine Bessems and William F. Drewry, Jr.	221
The American Home Architectural Portfolio	222
Not Moderne, Not Modernistic—Just Sane Modern George J. Cox	228
A Man's Own Room Mary E. Hussong	230
Lessons from the Colonial Gardens of Virginia Barbara Trigg Brown	232
Make a Moraine for Your Alpines Claire Norton	236
Contemporary Designs Abandon Self-Conscious Cleverness	238
The Run-About Child at Home Beulah France	240
White Paint for an Atlanta Apartment Mary Ralls Dockstader	242
Old Hooked Rugs for Modern Homes Christine Ferry	243
Modern Counterparts of Old Hooked Rugs	246
Thimblefields—A Country Estate on Less than an Acre Ellen Janet Fleming	247
Planting for Permanence Laura Allan	249
Two Gardens—One Year Old	250
A Sunny Basement Recreation Room Glenn F. Jenkins	252
Give an Irish Bridge Party Dorothy Gladys Spicer	253
All-Season Fragrance Jessie F. Gould	254
Hot Toast—as You Like It!	255
Dinner Party Plans for the Three-in-One Hostess Margaret Carson Brandsness	256
Maidless Dinners	257
My Dear Kate Louise Farley	269
Of Interest to You?	270
Speaking of Garden Clubs Georgiana R. Smith	278
Under a Blue Ozark Sky Wallace Biggs	281
Cooking Hints for the Beginner	284
Garden Facts and Fancies Leonard Barron	286
Facts About Food for Plants	290
Of Course You Want Roses Jean Hersey	294

*The Cover: A painting from a photograph of the home of Mr. Lewis H. Parsons, Villanova, Pa.; R. Brognard Okie, architect

HEADQUARTERS: 444 MADISON AVE., NEW YORK CITY. ADVERTISING OFFICES: PARK SQUARE BUILDING, BOSTON, MASS.; PEOPLES GAS BUILDING, CHICAGO, ILL.; SEATTLE, WASH.; SAN FRANCISCO, LOS ANGELES, CALIF., COPYRIGHT, 1935, BY THE COUNTRY LIFE-AMERICAN my guest said . . . “Oh what a lovely bathroom! I wish I could make mine shine like that.”

and I said . . . “But you can if you use Bon Ami. It cleans so easily and leaves such a sparkling gloss.”

Copyright, 1935, The Bon Ami Co.

Bon Ami

“hasn't scratched yet!”

WOMEN who have not used Bon Ami are surprised at the shine it brings to bathtubs, basins and tiling. For Bon Ami actually polishes as it cleans . . . leaves every surface not only spotless but glistening. Also, because it doesn't scratch, Bon Ami keeps bathrooms easier to clean. A smooth, undulled surface doesn't catch dirt like one scratched and roughened by coarse cleansers. Just clean your bathroom several times with Bon Ami and see for yourself how it will glisten.

The AMERICAN HOME

10¢
15¢ IN CANADA

MereMart.com®
Vintage Magazines for Special People

March, 1935
BUILDING PORTFOLIO

mainly