THE COVER

NRA police revolver competition has grown from a modest 140 competitors at the first National Championship in 1962, to 865 this year—rivaling the number of conventional pistol competitors at Camp Perry. On the cover, police officers are firing the 25-yd. stage of the NRA National Police Course, during the National Championships held recently near Jackson, Miss. For more on police championships see pp. 18-21. Photo by American Rifleman Associate Technical Editor C.E. Harris.

WHAT NRA IS

The National Rifle Association of America, founded in 1871, is an independent nonprofit organization supported by membership fees. Its purposes are to educate public-spirited citizens in the safe and efficient use of small arms for pleasure and protection; to foster firearms accuracy and safety in law-enforcement agencies, in the Armed Services, and among citizens subject to military duty; to promote good sportsmanship and to foster the conservation and wise use of our renewable wildlife resources; and to further the public welfare, law and order, and U.S. defense.

The NRA, the foremost guardian of the traditional American right to "keep and bear arms," believes that every law-abiding citizen is entitled to the ownership and legal use of firearms, and that every reputable gun owner should be an NRA member.

WHO MAY JOIN

Any loyal citizen of good repute is welcome to full membership in NRA. Under most circumstances, citizens of other nations are also welcome as non-resident members. Various levels of membership may be elected including: Benefactor, Patron, Endowment, Life and Annual. In addition to Regular status, members may elect various program options including: Associate, Club, Junior and WINRA (Women In NRA). For full information about these choices, write or call today.

MEMBERSHIP FEES

Individual: 1 year $15, 2 yrs. $27.50, 3 yrs. $40, 5 yrs. $60. Life: $200 ($125 if under 18 years or over 65).
