THE COVER

Quite simply put, Margaret Murdock is the finest woman rifle shooter who ever lived, and the word "woman" might well be an unnecessary qualification. Despite a schedule that allows little time for practice, she won two of the three events she entered at the NRA's 17th U.S. International Shooting Championships and placed second by a point in the third. For details of the matches see pp. 22-30.

WHAT NRA IS

The National Rifle Association of America, founded in 1871, is an independent nonprofit organization supported by membership fees. Its purposes are to educate public-spirited citizens in the safe and efficient use of small arms for pleasure and protection; to foster firearms accuracy and safety in law-enforcement agencies, in the Armed Services, and among citizens subject to military duty; to promote good sportsmanship and to foster the conservation and wise use of our renewable wildlife resources; and to further the public welfare, law and order, and U.S. defense.

The NRA, the foremost guardian of the traditional American right to "keep and bear arms," believes that every law-abiding citizen is entitled to the ownership and legal use of firearms, and that every reputable gun owner should be an NRA member.
