Features

26 | Swallowed Hole

BY MARSHALL LEWIN Proposed federal legislation, purported to close the non-existent "gun show loophole," would actually run many gun shows out of business.

28 | Anti-Gun & Angry, Too

BY DAVID B. KOPEL Another furious gun-banner jumps on the book publishing bandwagon. And as usual, the truth takes a beating.

COVER STORY

32 | Whose Reach Exceeds His Grasp

BY JAMES O.E. NORELL, CONTRIBUTING EDITOR
Through a series of lies and every other avenue possible, NYC's rogue Mayor Michael Bloomberg is working to bring his gun-control schemes to your hometown. Gun owners throughout the nation should be aware of the danger.

36 | What Is It Like?

BY BLAINE SMITH, ASSOCIATE EDITOR NYC Mayor Michael Bloomberg has gun dealers like Dino and Joanne Longueira over a barrel, claiming his anti-gun edicts will somehow stop violent crime. All he's accomplished is the disruption of legitimate firearm business.

40 | Let Us "Show You!"

BY GINA SCHMIDT, MANAGING EDITOR Mark your calendar for April 12-15; the NRA Annual Meetings & Exhibits are coming to St. Louis, and this year promises to be the greatest celebration of freedom ever.

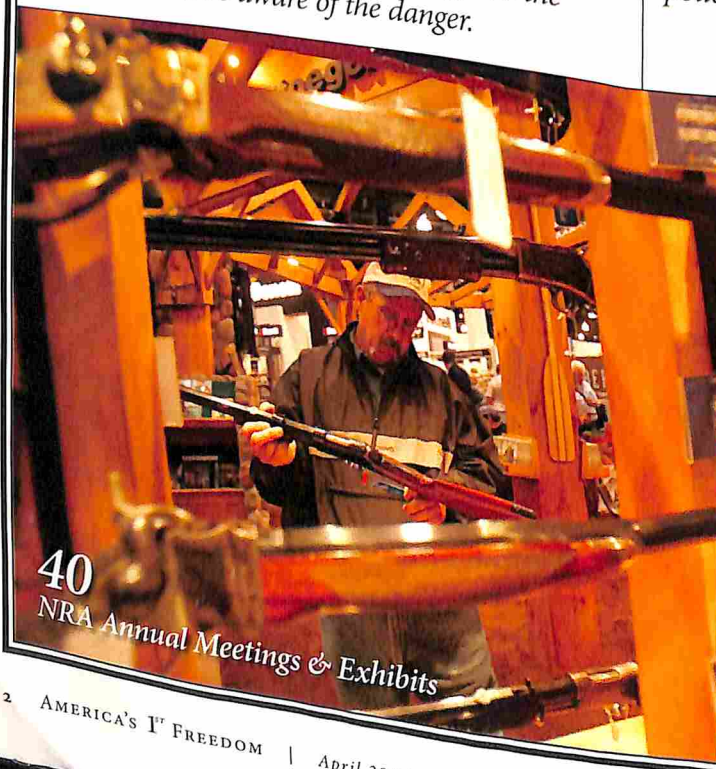

42 | "Show Me" What's New In '07

BY NRA STAFF A look at some of the best firearms set to take center stage at this year's NRA Annual Meetings & Exhibits in St. Louis.

SPOTLIGHT

50 | BlackHawk: From the Front Line to the Production Line

BY LAURIE LEE DOVEY After Navy Seal Mike Noell experienced an equipment failure in an Iraqi minefield, he established BlackHawk, a company that delivers the quality gear soldiers, hunters and police officers need.
