Features

26 | NRA Victories: The Eddie Eagle GunSafe Program

BY BLAINE SMITH, ASSOCIATE EDITOR Despite calls from anti-gun critics that it's a campaign of indoctrination, the NRA's Eddie Eagle GunSafe Program has taught over 18 million children what to do if they find a gun unsupervised. That's not indoctrination; that's an effort that can benefit every child.

28 | John Moses Browning: The Man Who Invented The Way America Shoots

BY GARY LANTZ The prolific John Browning would hold 128 firearms patents in his lifetime, and estimates say that by 1900 more than 75 percent of America's repeating firearms bore the Browning trademark. This is his story.

COVER STORY

32 | What Disaster Will Be The Next Excuse For Suspending The Second Amendment?

BY MARK CHESNUT, EDITOR At the NRA Annual Meetings & Exhibits in Milwaukee this past May, Wayne LaPierre and Chris W. Cox called on mayors and chiefs of police to sign a vow promising not to confiscate firearms from law-abiding citizens during times of disaster.

36 | Dump Doyle

BY NRA-ILA EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR CHRIS W. COX If you live in Wisconsin and value your Right to Keep and Bear Arms, your freedom to hunt and your ability to defend yourself and your family, then you face no more pressing political priority this fall than to dump Gov. James Doyle.

40 | The State (By State) Of Right-To-Carry

BY DAVE KOPEL Thirty-eight states? Thirty-nine? Forty? We attempt to resolve the states of confusion by giving you all you ever wanted to know about the status of Right-to-Carry laws but were afraid to ask.

42 | This Train Keeps A-Rollin'

BY BLAINE SMITH, ASSOCIATE EDITOR With the NRA at the switch, the Castle Doctrine continues chugging throughout the nation, reuniting Americans with the right to protect themselves and loved ones from danger.

SPOTLIGHT

46 | Wilson Combat: "Always Improve On Yesterday"

BY LAURIE LEE DOVEY With a continued focus on the elements that catapulted it to the top, Wilson Combat continues to craft the highest quality firearms in configurations that specifically match customers' needs and desires.
