Features

32 A Fault Line In California

BY DAVE KOPEL

A 9th Circuit ruling that recognized the right of Californians to carry firearms for self-defense opened a crack in one of the nation's most oppressive gun control regimes.

35 Rising To The Challenge

BY NRA EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT WAYNE LAPIERRE

When it comes to protecting freedom, NRA members never back down from a challenge.

36 Are The Wheels Coming Off In Connecticut?

BY FRANK MINITER

In the Constitution State, a draconian gun registration scheme has spurred civil disobedience and state police have mailed ominous letters to gun owners that they later denied sending.

40 Surgeon General Showdown

BY EDITOR MARK CHESNUT

NRA's strong opposition to President Obama's anti-gun nomination for Surgeon General has caused the confirmation vote in the U.S. Senate to be delayed—and the media to go berserk.

BOOK REVIEW

44 "The Law Of Self Defense" By Andrew F. Branca

REVIEW BY JOHN C. FRAZER

The second edition of Andrew F. Branca's book, "The Law of Self-Defense," fills a growing demand for information on self-defense law.

50 Hold The Phone!

BY NRA-ILA EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR CHRIS W. COX

The 2014 midterm elections are critical—especially because of the man who occupies the White House and his view of presidential power.
