WHAT'S ALL THIS TALK ABOUT THE NEW

ARMOUR'S FIXED FLAVOR STAR BACON?

PEOPLE everywhere are talking about it . . . eating it . . . and marveling at the new Fixed-Flavor taste. For here is Armour's newest achievement—Fixed Flavor—a new mildness never known in bacon, even Armour's. It gives you a new respect for bacon . . . whether served with eggs, Armour's Cloverbloom Eggs, or as a garnish to make other food-dishes more appetizing.

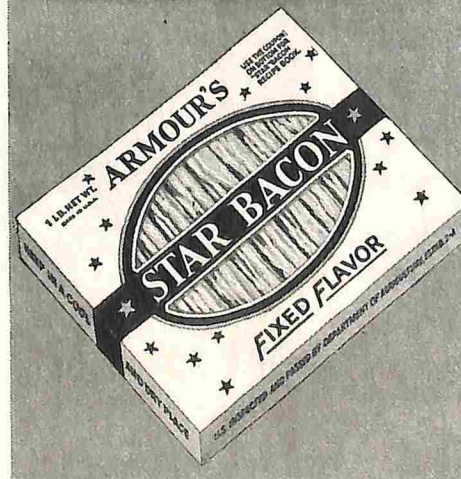

Here is the height of flavor-control . . . Armour and Company's exclusive, new cure-and-smoke method that permits no variation in the taste. In the smoking-process the regulation of heat is as accurate as your control of baking temperatures.

Thousands of women have found this new bacon to be an ingredient . . . a flavoring that puts new life in old dishes. And not just a meat to go with eggs. Those women use the book, "36 Ways to Serve Bacon." You will receive your copy by mailing the coupon. Look for the bright, new, window-top carton or the Fixed-Flavor label on the original piece when you ask your dealer for Armour's Fixed-Flavor Star Bacon.

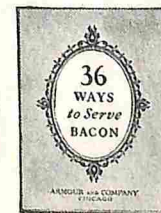

Fixed Flavor Star Bacon and Eggs

Place thinly sliced Fixed-Flavor Star Bacon in cold frying-pan and cook until crisp and brown, turning frequently, and occasionally pouring off fat from pan. Remove bacon to platter and return fat to pan. Slip Armour's Cloverbloom Eggs one at a time into the hot fat, and cook until the white is firm, basting frequently with the fat. Remove and serve on a platter with the bacon.

ARMOUR'S STAR BACON FIXED FLAVOR

The Fixed-Flavor label and U. S. Inspection are twin guarantees of Star Bacon perfection
