26. The benefits of having a wife who knows how to work on their street machine are obvious to Keith Hatounian—more time to kick back and catch up on his reading. Actually, more and more women have taken wrenches in hand and are creating their own outrageous cars, and Sharman DiVono explains why this is just the beginning of a whole new wave.

64. For some participants the Steet Nats WEST was just too much: Too much fun, too many activities, too many refreshments. For others, like this Canadian, it may have been too many hours on the road just getting to Devonshire Downs.

78. In case you've never seen one, this is a real CC Tree. The ones we give to the All-Star winners are nothing but cheap imitations. We discovered this lonely Joshua about four years ago and have been using it as a backdrop ever since. It worked perfectly for this story, as did the three Fords we were evaluating.
