

CONTENTS

12.10

32 JUST GETTING WARMED UP

Evan Longoria was not drafted out of high school, and D1 schools initially slept on him. So how did he become a major league star? The Rays slugger simply put his mind to it. BY BUSTER OLNEY

38 PLEASE HAVE YOUR BOARDING PASSES OUT ...

Pack up the wife and kids, block room calls and avoid the Staples Center. NBA and NHL insiders reveal the secrets to surviving the road during the playoffs.

44 MIXED MESSENGER

Warning: This interview with MMA mastermind Dana White may—scratch that—will contain explicit content. BY MICHAEL WOODS

50 ONE MEAN MOTHER

Darlington Raceway helped pull NASCAR off the dirt and into the big time. But the series has stuck her with a race on Mother's Day weekend. We asked the track for her take. She didn't disappoint. AS TOLD TO ED HINTON

52 OCCUPY YOURSELF

No one said finding a cool job in sports—like DANE HERRON'S gig as a moto X track builder—is easy. But look at the search like an adventure. The process won't be any easier, but you'll have more fun.

SO YOU WANT A JOB IN SPORTS... (see page 52)

NBA + NHL PLAYOFFS SURVIVING THE ROAD

DANA WHITE
4 Days With the
Baddest Man in MMA

SPORTS

TROPIC THUNDER

How EVAN LONGORIA willed himself to be the best young player in baseball

#BXNHSRJ CNR-RT LOTC-003
#ESN0071963771/1#92 1021 007
BUY COVERS @ ESPNTHEMAG.COM/COVERS
NORM HAUER
6709 BLOOMINGTON AVE
MINNEAPOLIS MN 55423-2664
236
7