

High Definition television so advanced, it can predict your future. How can we know? Because only at Sears, our new 46" and 55" Digital Widescreen televisions* can be yours with 0% financing until October 2003. The beauty of these models goes far deeper than their distinctively designed exteriors. These innovative 16:9 projection televisions feature the Philips exclusive Active Control System, which automatically adjusts for color, clarity, and sharpness 60 times a second, creating an incredibly vivid picture. Innovative enough to win a 2002 Emmy Award for our role in the development of widescreen television. For movies, sports, whatever your game, the choice is crystal clear.
