LIFE'S PICTURES

The following list, page by page, shows the source from which each picture in this issue was gathered. Where a single page is indebted to several sources, credit is recorded picture by picture (left to right, top to bottom) and line by line (lines separated by dashes) unless otherwise specified.

Rather wrestle a gorilla than shave?

Do you give your face a mauling every time you shave? Are you razor-shy? Then you have that combination so common among virile he-men—wiry whiskers and tender skin. And that can be a setup for torture. But it needn't be, if you know this simple fact...

You need a heavier cream to shave a tender skin

MOLLÉ is a heavier cream... a brushless cream that tames the toughest, heaviest beard and makes a pushover of a lighter one. Because it is heavier, Mollé not only softens your whiskers, it holds 'em up straighter. It lets your razor mow 'em down with the greatest of ease. You shave faster, you shave closer, you shave easier, and you shave painlessly when you use Mollé. Try it. Pronounced "Mo-lay."
