A LETTER TO GIs

Since LIFE's Sept. 25 issue appeared, requests for extra copies have poured in from people who wished to mail them to GI friends and employes abroad. LIFE deeply regrets that these requests cannot be filled: the very few extra copies not already sent overseas are earmarked for wounded veterans newly returned to the U. S. LIFE also regrets that its suggestion that readers send their own copies overseas was unclear as to the postal requirements. Readers may send "A Letter To GIs" to Army personnel with A.P.O. numbers only in a Christmas gift package (deadline is Oct. 15) or after having received a written request from the addressee. For Navy, Coast Guard or Marine personnel outside the U. S., simply wrap in strong paper, label "Magazine" and stamp with 9¢.

"Oh, I musta been a beautiful baby"

CHIP: Dad, would you say my military bearing is what gives this Munsingwear two-piece job its charm, or does it give me this well-knit look? Before you throw that chair...why do you still stick to a union suit?

BLOCK: Why? Because Winter's coming, son. And the way Munsingwear knits this one-piece garment, it's light and absorbent, snug and warm at one and the same time. Couldn't want better cold-weather protection!

CHIP: Protection? You don't want underwear, Dad, you want insurance! What us modern heroes go for is comfort. Like this boon to mankind... Munsingwear's famous "STRETCHY-SEAT"™. Gives when you give, can't creep or crawl!

BLOCK: Well, son, I can see where "STRETCHY-SEAT"™ has plenty of basic appeal...but I'm going to keep the home fires burning in this good old union suit. The important thing, as I see it, is: Wear Munsingwear, and be well-knit!

The seat alone is worth the price of admission
