

DOUBLE SUPPLEMENT: WHALES OF THE WORLD

VOL. 150, NO. 6

DECEMBER 1976

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

An aerial photograph of a fleet of square-rigged sailing ships, likely the Tall Ships, sailing on a dark blue sea. The ships are arranged in a line, with their white sails fully deployed. The perspective is from a high angle, looking down at the ships as they move across the water. The ships vary in size and rigging, with some having multiple masts and many sails. The water is dark, and the sky is a deep blue. The overall scene is dramatic and historical.
