FLYING HOME AND OTHER STORIES

RALPH ELLISON

SELECTED AND WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY JOHN F. CALLAHAN

Written between 1937 and 1954, and collected here for the first time — thirteen remarkable early stories, including three never before published, that “approach the simple elegance of Chekhov.”

Letter from Washington The Hug . . . . . Joe Klein 52
 Kissing partisanship goodbye.

Our Far-Flung Correspondents Beachless . . . . . Wade Graham 58
 Messing with nature is never a good idea.

A REPORTER AT LARGE The G-Man and the Hit Man . . . . . Fredric Dannen 68
 The F.B.I. uses some very nasty informants, but did it go too far in the case of a Colombo-family leader with a penchant for murder?

SHOWCASE “The Harlem Nutcracker” . . . . . Ulrike Schamoni 78

ANNALS OF TYCOONERY The Last Business Eccentric . . . . . Michael Korda 82
 There never was a C.E.O. as ruthless as Charles Bluhdorn. The author still misses him.

Merrill Lynch
on the value of long-term bonds.

With time—and only time—can a company build the fundamental foundation for success in the Asia Pacific Region: long-term personal relationships, based on absolute trust. Over more than 30 years, Merrill Lynch has established contacts and nurtured associations throughout the region. From this history have come bonds that cannot be bought and cannot be done without. For in the Asia Pacific Region, as in the rest of the world, trust makes all the difference.

The difference is Merrill Lynch.
