

"A tale as bawdy, raucous and dense as the jungle whose presence encroaches on every page."

—Publishers Weekly, Starred Review

"First to last, CELLOPHANE is a tale told with torrential imagination."

—People ★★★★★

"With a spectacular cast of passionate characters and a plot as lushly complex as the rain forest, Arana tells a bewitching story."

—Booklist, Starred Review

Marie Arana is editor of The Washington Post Book World. This is her first novel. The New York Times wrote that her memoir, American Chica, a finalist for the National Book Award, "reads like a collaboration between John Cheever and Isabel Allende."
