28 COMING OF AGE ON CITY STREETS

The mean streets that destroy teenage runaways through drugs and prostitution have one more horror to offer: AIDS.

By Patricia Hersch

38 LEARNING TO CARE

Young boys and girls are equally nurturant. But as they get older, most boys prefer pets to babies.

By Gail F. Melson and Alan Fogel

46 TAKING THE TERROR OUT OF TALK

For all those who get sweaty palms and weak knees when they are about to give a speech, there is help.

By Michael T. Motley

50 COUNSELORS OF TASTE

From furnishing a home to selecting a mate, people are turning to experts to make choices for them.

By Michael R. Solomon

54 THE COOPERATIVE EDGE

Changing the rules of some traditionally competitive games may teach players the value of cooperation in the real world.

By Gerald Rabow

62 GETTING HELP FROM HELPING

As self-help groups continue to grow, psychologists are trying to understand how, why and if they work.

By Dan Hurley
