ROAD TESTS

Porsche 911SC Cabrio —Zuffenhausen brings back its convertible and the joys of open-air motoring	32
BMW 533i —the Bavarians' idea of double-digit inflation is turning the economical 528e into a driving sensation	48
Toyota Cressida —an attractive (and luxurious) alternative to some of Europe's more expensive sedans	51

FEATURES

Profile: Keke Rosberg —the feisty Finn rides racing's roller coaster to the World F1 Championship	20
A Porsche Parade —a family portrait of Ferdinand's and Ferry's favorites	36
Sons —following in father's footsteps isn't always easy, especially if you're an Andretti or an Unser	38
1983 BMWs —Bee Em Vee stays on 5 with its e, but ups its performance and handling bets on 6 and 7	47
Mercedes-Benz Auto 2000 —a twin-turbo diesel V-6 with economy and performance to spare	56
A Date With Vera —can our lead-footed Engineering Editor find happiness at 91.2 mpg?	60
Citroën BX —all of the distinctiveness of the marque clothed in a classic Italian mantle	66
A Cat for the Can-Am —Herb Adams' latest design takes the driver and engine and splits the difference	94
Salon: 1937 Mercedes-Benz W125 —even today it remains one of the most powerful GP racers ever built	96
Inomoto —his automotive X-ray views would make Superman envious	104
Lotus Returns . . . Again —Colin Chapman's classy (and classic) coupes make their American comeback	106
And One More for the Road —a new perspective on drunk driving, the 20th-Century's technological equivalent of the Plague	108

COMPETITION

1982 Champion Spark Plug Road Racing Classic —as colorful, competitive and controversial as ever	42
