THE COVER

Here is the Formula I Scarab in its ready-to-race form. The place is the Riverside International Raceway and the car is being driven by one Charles Daigh. Although the wheels are pointed in a way that suggests dire peril for the photographer, the car's heavy understeer keeps it in the groove. This is a Dean Batchelor photo, taken with a Leica camera fitted with a 90 mm lens, and is on Ektachrome film.
