

ROD & Custom

DECEMBER 1995 Volume 2, Number 12

26 This might not have been the biggest NSRA Street Rod Nationals ever, but it was one of the best.

42 If you like nostalgic Deuce roadsters done with quality and style, you will really enjoy Gary and Donna Moline's highboy.

66 Paso Robles is a quiet little town in Central California, but on Memorial Day each year it turns into the custom car headquarters.

ON THE COVER: Louie Mayall and Jeff Tann teamed up to shoot the main photo of R&C Publisher De Ette Crow explaining to David E. Wilkinson, Chief of Police of Syracuse, New York, that a blown 392 Hemi in a Model A coupe couldn't possibly break the speed limit at the Street Rod Nationals held in Syracuse. The Model A coupe at Indy and the '37 Ford sedan at York, Pennsylvania, were captured by Louie Mayall. The Kustoms cruising at Paso Robles, California, were shot by Pat Ganahl.
