ON THE COVER

Air guns have come a long way since the days of the BB-gun. Now available are superbly accurate and well-made spring-air guns that will surprise the gun buff. The beauty of these air guns is that they can be enjoyed by youngster and adult alike, indoors or outdoors. Thirteen-year-old Tony on this month's cover can consistently put five shots into one-quarter inch groups almost every time, and this after owning the gun for just one month! — Sam Wilson Photo.
