

contents

SPORTS AFIELD VOL. 174 NO. 4 OCTOBER 1975

DEER HUNTING

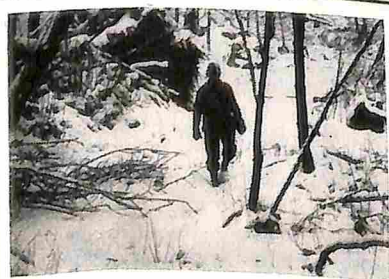

Interesting antler facts—page 62

Trail Watching Means Venison: But Which Trail Do You Watch?
—When gone about with purpose and scope, this is the most effective method of hunting deer the author knows.
—Gerald Johnson 55

Take an Extra Pair of Eyes for Whitetails—How to choose, and where to get, the best binoculars for hunting in thick cover.
—Mark Hicks 58

Palace in the Popple—To hunters, a deer camp is more than just a shack in the woods, as this poem is quick to point out.
—John Madson 59

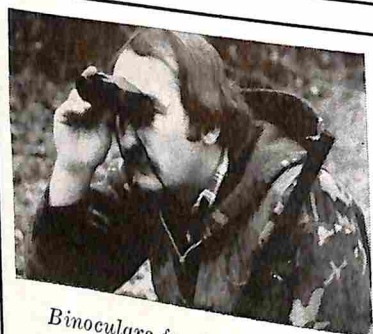

Hunting with the Benoits—page 70

Mulie Methods That Really Work
—If you think mulies are big, dumb and easily shot you're mistaken. It takes planning and savvy to bag one of these fleet, wary trophies.
—V. Lee Oertle 60

Points You Didn't Know About Antlers—Why are some deer's racks bigger than others? How and why do they grow? These and other questions are answered in this report.
—Doug Knight 62

Trophy Whitetails: Hunting's Toughest Challenge—The south's big-buck pro tells how he scores on record-size bucks—and tells how you can score too!
—Ron Manning as told to Dave Harbour 64

Boning Deer: Save Time, Money and Meat—A professional meatcutter outlines a lazy man's way of cutting up venison that's easy to do.
—Michael Greeley 68

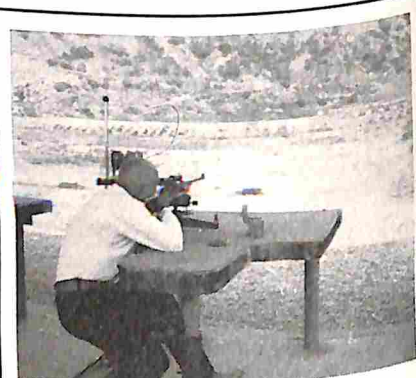

Binoculars for deer—page 58

Lessons the Benoits Learned from Seven Unforgettable Deer
—Possibly America's best whitetail hunters, these Vermonters reveal what deer have taught them.
—Larry and Lanny Benoit with Peter Miller 70

Deer Hunting: The Challenge and the Prize—It takes special tactics to hunt deer alone. These tips will benefit all hunters.
—Lee Wulff 72

HUNTING

How to Zero Your Hunting Rifle: 100 to 600 yards—A simple step-by-step method to improve sighting accuracy.
—Fritz Townsend 26

Sighting-in your rifle—page 26

Teaching Your Retriever Upland Work—Retrievers are excellent all-around Gundogs, especially after the dog has been trained to do his prime job on waterfowl.
—Richard A. Wolters 40

TRAVEL AFIELD

The Truth About Mexican Bass Fishing—Like bass anywhere, south-of-the-border fish can be tough to catch. Read this factual report before you go.
—R.M. Wadsworth 172

Travel Editor Robert O'Byrne takes an indepth look at Lake Guerrero, Mexico, currently one of the hottest bass lakes anywhere. Where to test bass lakes anywhere. Where to stay, how to get there, border-crossing tips and best fishing tactics. 172

TAIL FEATHERS

Gene Hill: So it is with a lot of outdoor lore; we would like to believe, or at least strongly hold, that certain improbable things are indeed true. 184

OUTDOOR-LIVING INFORMATION

Sportsman's Quiz—A test of your outdoor knowledge. 52

Sportsman's Information Page—Where to get items of interest to all outdoorsmen. 116

FISHING

30 Famous Anglers Pick Their Four Favorite Flies—A battery of experts reveal which flies produce best for them, and why.
—Dan Abrams 14

Better steelhead rigs—page 74

Quick-Change System for Steelhead—Fishing is fruitless unless your lure is in the water. That idea is what led to this "quick-change system" that the pros use.
—Herb Williams 74

Pack-in Paradise for Trout—For trout fishing like you've never experienced, try a horseback pack-in trip to Oregon's Wallowa National Forest.
—Jack Dumas 76

Horseback trip for trout—page 76

REPORT AFIELD

Sign of the Times—New Massachusetts gun law signs confuse resident hunters, nonresidents, even police. 10

Western Anglers Earn $1700 Returning Bass Tags—Lake Mead fishermen collect $5 each for plastic tags implanted on largemouths. 10

What happened to Arizona's New Record Striped Bass?—A 49-pound 13-ounce striper was eaten—by mistake—before it could be mounted. 10

Record of First National Bass Symposium Available—This publication gives the serious angler much insight into the life and ways of the black bass. 10

Record Sixgill Shark Caught in California—A 1270-pound specimen of this rarely seen, deep-water shark netted in eastern Pacific. 12

"Force Corporations to Reveal Conservation Records," NWF Demands—A plan for the public to accurately determine environmental records of large corporations. 12

Texans Thank Whooping Cranes for Newest Outdoor Rec Hot Spot—Air Force bombing range on Matagorda Island closes for migrating cranes, opens for sportsmen's use. 10

Going to Fish Ireland? Read this Booklet First—All the inside information you need for fishing the Emerald Isle. 12

Space Technology Aids Lion Researchers—Arizona and New Mexico game departments using electronics to study mountain lion behavior. 12

Sure, Hunting Permits Are Expensive, but This One Was Ridiculous—$1 million for a hunting permit? It happened in Arizona. 12

ALS Urges Anglers, "Don't Waste Sharks"—Interest in sharks has reached an all-time high—and so has the unnecessary waste. 12

Sharks in the Bahamas? Oh, No, Mahn, No-o-o-o—Bahama officials oust TV crew doing film study of reef life. 12

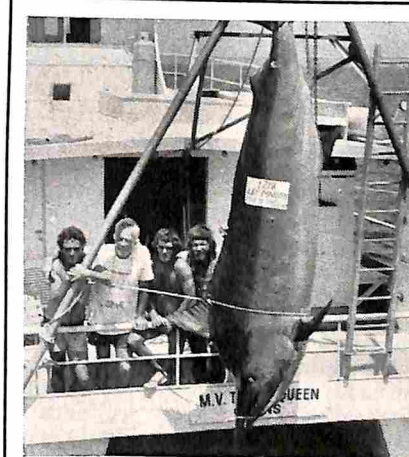

EDITORS' REPORTS

Recreational Vehicles Editor Jack Seville takes a look at new snowmobiles for 1976. 80

Shooting Editor Grits Gresham tells how to read a buck's book to increase your odds of success. 84

Saltwater Editor Tom Paugh discusses the new look the IGFA has and what it means to anglers. 86

Angling Editor Homer Circle tells how to reap a heavy harvest of fish in the fall months. 90

The new look of the IGFA—page 86

Boats Editor Zack Taylor discusses portable boats that are perfect for pack-in trips. 100

Gundogs Editor Jerome B. Robinson on the best ways to train a beagle to become a good rabbit-hunting dog. 158

ALMANAC

Tips, skills, wildlife facts, curiosities, recipes, do-it-yourself outdoor ideas that are informative, fun and will save you money. 105

Cover by Norman Adams

SPECIAL DEER ISSUE!

Sports Afield

OCTOBER 1975 • 75¢

with
ROD & GUN

THE MOST USEFUL
INFORMATION
EVER ASSEMBLED IN A MAGAZINE:
ANTLER FACTS
STALKING
TRAIL WATCHING
TROPHY BUCKS SIGHTING-IN BONING VENISON AND MORE ON DEER

MoreMart.com

Vintage Magazines for Special People

PLUS STORIES ON RETRIEVER TRAINING
BEAGLES
STEELHEAD

